Earls Westhills - Calgary

Earls Westhills has partnered with the Rotary Employment Partnership in Calgary to hire their newest setter, Hannah. Hannah's primary responsibility is to create a clean and organized environment for guests to enjoy. Her tasks include clearing and wiping tables and booths, setting and arranging tables, and supporting servers and bartenders with additional tasks such as polishing cutlery, getting ice, and taking out recycling. Kelsey, Lunch Manager at Earls, shares that "Hannah has been a great addition to the team. As a Setter, she is a big help to our servers, especially during our busy lunch hours. Seeing her speed and confidence grow since she joined the team in March has been great."

Ukrainian Village - Edmonton

Torie has just completed her studies in History at Concordia University this spring and has recently returned to work at the Ukrainian Village for the summer. At the Village, Torie maintains three garden plots using traditional Ukrainian tools. Torie has a strong passion for her work and enjoys teaching others about the rich history of Ukraine. Pamela, the Head of Education and Interpretation Services, was excited to have Torie return to work for the second year in a row and shared that she is such a diligent worker, and even when it's +40 outside, you can find Torie out in the garden, teaching the school classes that pass by about the historical significance of the tools and methods of gardening used.

Lululemon - Red Deer

Lululemon heard about the successful hire through the Rotary Employment Partnership at their Calgary Chinook Centre location and inquired about hiring at the Red Deer location. Chantal was hired in the Refill position, which involves using in-store technology to locate and add depleted items to the floor from inventory, de-stocking items, and organizing, hanging and folding clothing to be displayed in the store. Chantal's tasks have recently expanded to include filling online orders and locating and packing in-store pick-up items. Chantal enjoys getting together with her co-workers outside of work for spin and yoga classes and participating in team-building events.

"Chantal has been incredible to work with. Her attention to detail, commitment to her work, and positivity have inspired our whole team. It has been so fulfilling seeing Chantal's continued growth in confidence over her time with us - she is a fully engaged member of our team who contributes so much to our business and is a pleasure to work alongside." Jill, Manager at Lululemon, Red Deer
