JULY IS LITERACY MONTH

FOUR WAY TEST

In all things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

President Al Hardstaff called the meeting to order promptly at 7:00 am, and asked Visiting Rotarian Don Bell to lead the fellowship in the singing of our national anthem. And a fine job Don did. P.P. Walter Zuk offered grace.

John Radermacher introduced the following guests and visiting Rotarians

Rotarians: Don Bell (Calgary Centennial) and Steve Rickard (Calgary West).

Guests: Dan Chugg (guest speaker)

Past President Bill Hope was invited to serve the breakfast plates. (Asha prescribed assigning Bill periodic tasks such as this to help him deal with TWS – task withdrawal syndrome).

SHERIFF:

Sheriff Martin Harvey emerged from his extensive undercover operation to reveal offences committed by the following individuals.

Anyone wearing shorts and looking far too relaxed: a loonie.

Wynne Bjorgan: a loonie for being unusually quite.

Surinder Khanna: a loonie for taking a leave of absence.

ALBERTA FILM INDUSTRY

burgeoning film industry

P.P. Raju Paul introduced this week's speaker Dan Chugg. Dan acts as the Alberta Film Commissioner for Alberta Film and presented a informative presentation on Alberta's

Dan began his career as a schoolteacher and in 2002 he took a position with Alberta Film to lend his talents to help grow the film industry in this province. As the organization set up market the province to the globally competitive and incentive driven international film industry, Alberta Film helps bring over $100 million into the provincial economy. The film industry is a big spender and the economic spin-off to local communities is substantial. One million dollars in expenditure results in 25 person years of work!

Alberta offers a number of advantages to the film industry including providing lower costs and greater production value. It has a state-of-the-art sound stage in Edmonton, production offices in Calgary, a full range of production equipment, outstanding set design and construction, a broad base of support services, Emmy and

PODIUM DASH

Ernie D. announced that the recent Classic golf tournament raised over $500,000 for Rotary Challenger Park and an additional $50,000 for the Rotary Foundation.

Conspicuous by his absence, Peter Harding was unable to update the fellowship on the status of the upcoming Wine Festival.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

John Radermacher: for confusing “date” and “time” during introductions.

Alec McDougall: a loonie for becoming engaged last week.

Ernie Drew: a loonie for confusing golf tournaments.

Anyone sitting at a table without a female: a loonie.

Anyone not wearing pins and badges: a loonie.

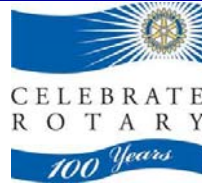

HAPPY BUCKS:

Garry Gray: a happy buck for his son who recently gained employment with Canadian Mental Health.

Jim Davis: five happy bucks for running his first half marathon, for playing an amazing ten rounds of golf during his recent family vacation,

CELEBRATE ROTARY

The Rotary International convention will be held in Chicago in June 2005. Book your tickets and rooms now. Remember that modes of transportation other than bus are available and are recognized by the new club executive.

and for the $150,000 that his company ECL donated to the Calgary Children's Hospital.

Bill Hope: a happy buck for the Harley that he intends to win, and a sad buck for the Ford he drives.

Jeanette Pyle: a happy buck to celebrate her daughters graduation from grade 12, and another to celebrate the opening of long awaited Club Café at Heritage Park.

Asha Paul: a toonie to celebrate having her children at home.

Don Bell: a happy buck for being in the company of fellow Rotarians, and a sad buck for Al Muller who recently lost his wife.

Wynne Bjorgan: a happy buck for her sister who bought a house.

Surinder Khanna: a happy buck for attending today's meeting.

Barry Jarvis: a happy buck for his recent trip to Alaska.

President Al closed the meeting promptly 8:20am

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The soon-to-be-published book titled “Under the Northern Lights” is available for pre-ordering. The book documents the history of 23 Rotary districts that make up Zone 22. With districts spanning across Canada, Alaska and Russia, the book is sure to be diverse in content. A CD version is provided with every book order. For more information see President Al.

John R. was invited to the podium to talk about the recent Canadian Masters Track & Field event hosted by the Downtown Club. John and Trish helped the volunteer team to serve food at the extremely well-organized event. Unfortunately Team Radmacher was almost late for their duties as driver John drove the equivalent of a full-length marathon looking for the venue at Foothills Athletic Park.

Oscar nominated crews and performers, and an thriving service industry of quality hotels and fine restaurants. It also offers unparalleled diversity and character and has doubled for many locations around the world.

Dan's goal is to ensure that our market share of the industry continues to grow. He is specifically interested in leveraging film sites and sets for tourism. Precedent around the world has proven that long after filming has been completed, film sites continue to attract tourists infusing valuable tourist dollars into the local economy.

P.P. Dennis Tillotson thanked Dan for his informative presentation and offered him a gift of sight from Operation Eyesight.

50/50 DRAW

Lady Luck follows Harry Kim wherever he goes it seems. Who would have guessed that as Harry fanned out the deck of cards, ticket winner Betty L. would select the joker. When asked what she would do with her $200+ winnings, she said that she resist the usual temptations and try to live life as she always has.

SUNSHINE

ANNIVERSARY GREETINGS

Despite the fact that it was sunny out on Friday, the Sunshine Report was not offered at the meeting, however it should be noted that President Al and Ida H. celebrate a wedding anniversary on the 26th and Director Bob and Shirley Clark celebrated their anniversary on July 20th.

Compensation Trust of the Business Council of Alabama. In Florida, he was chairman of the YMCA, the American Chemical Society, and the Arthritis Foundation.

A Rotarian since 1960, Glenn was a member first in Jacksonville, Florida (USA), and then Wayne, New Jersey (USA). Glenn was an adviser to the 1997 RI Convention Committee and PolioPlus national coordinator in 1987-88. During his tenure as a trustee, Glenn served as chair of the Foundation's Finance Committee and vice chair of its Program Committee. He was RI's International Assembly chair and moderator in 1999.

He was a member of RI's Audit and Operations Review Committee for four years and its chair for one year. This is RI's only committee having a six-year term. This committee serves in an advisory role to the Board of Directors. Glenn was also the chair of the 2002-03 Membership Development and Retention Committee.

Glenn is a Rotary Foundation Major Donor, a Paul Harris Fellow, and a Benefactor. He is the recipient of RI's Service Above Self Award and The Rotary Foundation's Citation for Meritorious Service and Distinguished Service Award.

Glenn and Mary have three children and eight grandchildren. Sixteen members of his family are Paul Harris Fellows.

He is serving as president of Rotary International for its centennial year of 2004-05.
