LORD'S INTERACT CLUB

Wynne (Young At Heart) Bjorgan introduced Lord Beaverbrook Interact President Chelsea Hiebert. Chelsea has been with the club for three years. Their goal this year was to do one project per month. These projects included: Salvation Army hampers, adopting a YWCA room, the G.W. Skene carnival, a Mustard Seed lunch and an international project inspired by the Oprah Winfrey show to assist Ethiopian women with their pregnancies and childbirth. Chelsea thanked our club for the opportunity and the growth she has experienced and skills she has acquired as a result of her participation with the Interact Club.

Chelsea thanked Peter, Wynne and Nicole and presented them with gifts of appreciation.

President Bill concluded the meeting.

ADVENTURES IN CITIZENSHIP

Peter (Pan) Harding introduced Leslie Milner.

Leslie spoke about her experiences in Yellow Knife by focusing on the differences between Calgary and Yellow Knife. She noted that Yellow Knife may be colder in temperature but it warmly embraces its native people. A consensus system of government impressed Leslie where there are no political parties and individuals are selected and Alec (Inner Child) McDougall introduced Jennifer McIntyre.

Jennifer spoke about her experiences with Ottawa Adventures in Citizenship, which introduced her to Canadians from different cultures. Highlights included time spent with the RCMP and Danish government representative. Jennifer learned the importance of being a Canadian citizen while witnessing a swearing in ceremony for several new Canadians of all ages. Jennifer thanked us for providing her with the incentive to become more aware and involved.

held accountable. Under the crown land system of natural resource ownership, royalties are sent to the Federal government with only a portion returned to the Territories.

There appears to be much that we can learn from the people of Yellow Knife and Leslie thanked us for the opportunity that was presented to her.

SUNSHINE

Bob and Maryann Cove will celebrate their anniversary on May 13th.

Acknowledging the seven second microphone delay due to the youth in attendance, Martin kept the joke clean and opted for the safe combination of religion and hockey. A popular myth that there is no useful purpose for Oilers fans was dispelled. Martin reminded us that our beloved Flames are set to go shark hunting (beginning this Sunday at 2:00 p.m. MST).

FOUR WAY TEST SPEECH CONTEST

Bobbi's award winning speech was tied to the Rotary four way test and was based upon the passage from high school although its underlying message applied to all people. Bobbi's speech questioned our lifestyle of stress and unobtainable expectations. She eloquently urged us to focus on building relationships and take the time to smell the roses and appreciate life.

David presented Bobbi and the three speakers tied for 2nd place with cheques.

50/50 DRAW

With a pot approaching $62 before tax, Ernie Drew disclosed the four-way test and deducted a liability from the deck (a King).

DECLARATION OF ROTARIANS IN BUSINESSES AND PROFESSIONS

The Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions was adopted by the Rotary International Council on Legislation in 1989 to provide more specific guidelines for the high ethical standards called for in the Object of Rotary:

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

- Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve;
- Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of my community;
- Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
- Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public, and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
- Recognize the honour and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society;
- Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
- Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
- Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
