MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The bell tolled and President Al Hardstaff's amplified voice rang out as we returned to The Gunn Dairy Barn. David McKeown led the singing of our national anthem without electronic assistance. Barry Mah presented a thoughtful grace. Jim Hennessy requested a moment of silence for the four RCMP officers who died in the line of duty.

Beach Boy
Garry Gary introduced the visiting Rotarians and guests with a hearty aloha, plus key chains for all in attendance.

Joe Jorgia answered the call to pass the plates.

G.W. SKENE SCHOOL

Wynne introduced Diane Goods the principal of G.W. Skene School.

Diane thanked our club for our contributions to the February Fundraising Carnival and providing warm clothing for those children in need. Fund raising is very important to this school to provide for its students.

Last year's contributions assisted with math and personal development. This year the focus is on literacy and technology needs for diverse student learners. Direct instruction will also be a focus. A proposal has been made to Rotary.

The school currently has 305 students in grades 4, 5 and 6, however many students are up to 2 years behind in their language skills. The issue is a lack of experience rather than a lack of skill. Some students have English as a second language and even though born in Canada come from homes where

ATTENTION TO BUSINESS

Barry Jarvis reminded us of the club's casino to be held on April 25 and 26th. The schedule is posted in The Standard and a hard copy was circulated even though everyone reads The Standard each and every week. Barry also reminded us of the upcoming Rotary Centennial Celebration on April 9th in The Roundup Centre. Tickets are $150 per couple.

President Al has obtained a Heritage Park building history, which he will share with the club when opportunities arise.

Doug Hood will once again be our golf marshal. The event will be held Thursday June 9 at 1:00 at McKenzie Meadows. With "sponsors, golfers, prizes and volunteers" all required, every member will participate in one or more of this foursome.

Martin Harvey announced that Friday March 11th will be a bring a guest meeting. Members are reminded to be on their best behavior while we market the club.

President Al announced that the District Conference will be held in Banff May 20-22. Our club will pay the registration fee for first time attendees.

The Integrity Awards will be held Monday March 7th at Stage West. Tickets are still available and Walter remains without a date for the evening.

English is not spoken. The school now has a full time literacy teacher.

Their library is currently outdated and Diane hopes to provide access to age appropriate books and technology to increase their student's confidence.

David McKeown thanked Diane.

President Al adjourned the meeting.

Happy Bucks

- Din had a sad $1 for the four slain officers.
- Garry Gray had a sad $1 to be back from Hawaii.
- Walter had a sad $1 for Garry's return from Hawaii.
- John Radermacher had a sad $1 for Garry's return.
- Jamie had a happy $1 for the swell key chain that Garry brought him from Hawaii.
- Asha had a sad $1 for being fired by the sergeant at arms the previous week. With her remaining $1 she retained Bob Clark as her counsel in this matter.
- Bob Clark had a nostalgic $1 to recall the days when lawyers would accept a $1 retainer and then happily walk to the courthouse uphill both ways through the snow, to present their briefs.
- Walter had a happy $1 that the building remained standing after Dennis walked into a load-bearing pole.
- President Al had a happy $1 for snow-mobiling with Garry Gray.
- Jim Hennessy had a happy $1 to honor Helen Buchanan's attendance, beauty, grace and compassion for her fellow members.

Sheriff

Surprising only those members not sitting with her at breakfast, Helen Buchanan was our sheriff.

- All at Helen's table were fined for recognizing her role when she began taking notes and then attempting to curry her favor.

- Betty Little for attempting to stay under the radar.
- Al Black because Helen received a T5 for income earned on the life insurance policy that the club has on her.
- Jamie because he is too well rested for a new father.
- Garry Gary for failing to deliver leis.
- Alec McDougall and Gary Brown, our two most prolific sheriffs, swallowed a bitter taste of their own medicine.
- Bob Clark for his attempted beard despite the lack of hockey.
- Jim Hennessy for his Surinder impersonation.
- Bill Hope for his comments directed to Walter. Bill happily paid the fine and quietly planned another comment.
- Steven Yu for requesting two tickets to the Integrity Awards and then attempting to avoid attending.
- John, Rick and Din for their disturbingly well-developed olfactory sense, detecting the fruity aroma of herbal tea.
- Peter Palleson for being late.
- Everyone who failed to get their 5-8 servings of fruits and vegetables yesterday since March is nutrition month.
