Today we are going to have three young people present their speeches in the four way test. The winner from our club is going to go onto the city wide contest.

Our first speaker is Amanda Omelusik. She is a grade 11 student from Lord Beaverbrook and talked about judgement. She was talking about judgement of ourselves and others, and how it is not fair. It can create doubt in yourself and can damage your self image. Amanda thinks that we all need to have more confidence and not let other people influence our thoughts.

Our next speaker is Gabrielle Leahey and is also from Lord Beaverbrook. She is on the leadership team at the school and has provided her the opportunity to influence her school and community.

Everyone's efforts impact people around them and can be positive or negative. Leadership allows us to believe that all things are possible and that we can do what we set our minds to.

Our final speaker is Tracy Abildgaard spoke to us about the homelessness in Calgary. What do you do when you see a homeless person in Calgary? With a little help from everyone we can help people make an impact in their lives. We can volunteer at the Mustard Seed, donate money to the United Way, Salvation Army, and all of these organizations have a zero tolerance towards substance abuse.

The winner of the speech contest was Gabrielle Leakey and she will be going onto the District Conference to present against

Gabrielle Leakey, winner of the 4 way speech contest
