Doug Hood- Community Services

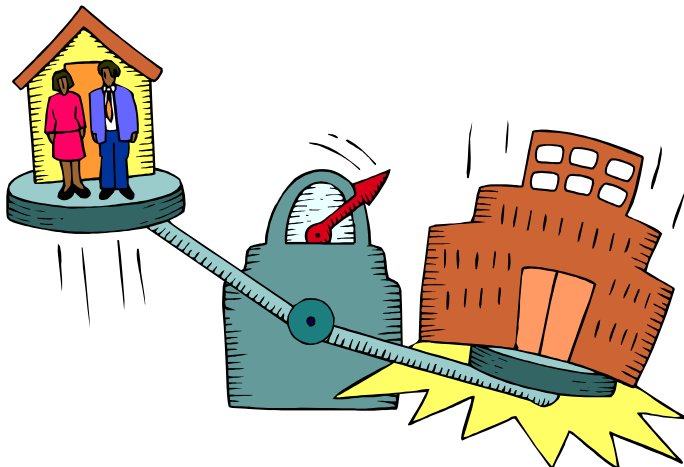

We are going to continue to focus on involvement in sweat equity projects. 1. Highway cleanup which had good representation 2. The Salvation Army kettles collected over $650 000 in Calgary and $5500 in the Heritage Park. We had almost 100% participation from the club.

John Salt has been working with the Drop In centre, sandwich making, and we were not able to do the carolling this year as the church got back to us too late.

The committee has over $40 000 and there have been eight causes that have come to them for funds. The Legion poppy fund and Calgary parental support have received money and there is another organization that is looking at getting the paperwork to them. The other five organizations have not been approved for various reasons.

The committee is making their decision for funding based on the following criteria:

- is it an organization that by having our contribution can make a difference
- the proceeds are used to make capital expenditures for an organization
- organizations that have the opportunity for the club to do some sweat equity

Jim Hennessy- Vocational Services

He would like to say that he has a great committee and would like to thank you for their help.

We have supported "It's a Crime not to read", Motive Action,

GW Skeane, Ryla, Rypin, and Lord Beaverbrook high school. GW Skeane is looking for more people to come out and read with the Grandparent reading program. The vocational services committee is looking at potentially supporting "Adventures in Fire Fighting" and "Adventures in Technology", James Short School, and the Four Way speech contest at the district governor's conference.

SUNSHINE REPORT

50/50

Mr Jim Hennessy was so kind as to present this weeks Sunshine Report.

Jim told us a great story about some business mergers and the new names. Thanks Jim for the great laughs.

Peter Harding asked Din P to select this week's qualifying ticket. Walter Zuk's ticket was selected and after passing the Four Way Test, he unfortunately did not find the joker in the deck. As a result for not pulling the joker the pot is growing once again!
