MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

THE STANDARD: JUNE 16, 2006

It is morning! It is raining! It is the June 16th meeting of The Rotary Club of Heritage Park. Ta Dah!

Acting President David McKeown, otherwise known as the man with many fingers, takes to the microphone and it doesn't work! Bellowing in the breeze he brings the meeting to order and with enthusiasm O Canada startles the horses in the pasture nearby. Jeannette Pyle does the introductions, featuring her sister.

Then our customary light breakfast. Har. Announcements come thick and fast. Gary Brown modestly approaches the podium and asks for help in loading wheelchairs into containers for the Global Disabilities Foundation. The containers will take their precious cargo to Vietnam where so many have lost limbs to millions of land mines.

Guest Speaker: Dr. John Rook

Dr. John Rook – Gary Brown introduced Dr. John Rook, CEO of The Salvation Army Community Services. So another speaker about the downtrodden? Hardly. For every one of us attending this meeting John Rook told us a story about life, about people most of us don't want to know about and how they are helped by love and caring. Rook delivered an incredible message of work undertaken by 250 staff with a budge of $15 million working in our City....a message we didn't know about.

Barry Jarvis announces a Casino to be manned by our Club, looking for support October 13/14. By the way, the site of our Casino will be the Deerfoot location. Oh goodee!

As your reporter of this day I could only think about Bob Sadler and I manning a Christmas Kettle here at the Park at Christmas, and how glorious a moment that was.

Jeanette Pyle announced our guest and visiting Rotarians

Center of Hope Building in Calgary

He told us about 356 children homeless in our City. How can that be? He told us about 600 homeless sheltered each night at the Centre of Hope and an additional 200 who are fed. He told us about 2300 Xmas hampers given to those who need. He told us about youth 12 to 18 who are left out of the normal scale of help in our community and how they can be supported. Dr. John Rook delivered an important message to all of us. He was an important ambassador of hope to our meeting.

The eyesight of a person in India was restored because of his presentation to us.

David McKeown and our guest speaker, Dr. John Rook

Jim Davis Thanked our guest speaker

Happy Bucks

Happy Bucks for the Golf Committee and their marvelous work. To Hans Teidelman and his winning of an umbrella. Jim Davis, CEO of ECL announced that his company had been named Hauler of the Year by Exxon/Imperial. Wow. And the news that a Canadian will likely be in incoming RI President = Martin Harvey of Trenton, Ontario.

50/50 JACK POT

The 50/50 draw was tried by a Downtown Club member, (Keith) . He didn't make it.

Sheriff Barry Jarvis: You're BUSTED!

The Sheriff is Barry Jarvis. Bang Bang.

SUNSHINE REPORT

THE SUNSHINE REPORT:

Jim Hennessy delivers the Sunshine Report. Joan Bedard is having a birthday...just 19! Wow is she gorgeous. Heppy Birfday. Walter Zuk is celebrating 900 years of marriage. That all ended with a marvelous heart rending tale of the Lone Ranger and Tonto staring at the stars. Seems someone stole their tent.
