Meeting Highlights

It all begins with a muted roar! President Wynn gradually brings the cackles, roars and musings under control leads us in "O Canada". We have the usual gaggle of guests from other Clubs, but a special guest in Angela Price, wife of our Bob Price. She makes a great addition to our meeting and our table.

Peter Harding asked the club members to give to the Rotary Foundation.

In the two hours before our official speaker we have speakers! Peter Harding wants us to enjoy Christmas and relax and not have to work during Christmas. He wants us to give $100.00 each to the Rotary Foundation so we don't have to dig good water wells somewhere they are needed and will be done instead by the RI Foundation. Touching.

Guest Speaker: Nick Simpson...

Nick Simpson captivated the audience with his presentation on ABC's of Fraud.

Bob Price introduced our speaker....Nick Simpson who would talk to us about identify theft. He started by giving us the ABC's of Fraud: recognize it, report it, stop it. And no matter what one thinks fraud is a huge element of our Society and anyone of us is vulnerable. Identify Theft is the leading fraud in terms of dollars lost. It is costing Canadians $3 billion dollars per year. Our speaker talked to us about the difference between fraud and theft. He told us about telephone campaigns from alleged good companies who ask for name, address, date of birth but most important -our SIN numbers.

Visiting Rotaract members, Brian and Ken Cheung.

Jim Hennessey asks us to stand to recognize the passing of an honorary member of our Club in Florence Pallesen, mother of member Peter Pallessen. Then the meeting is about Teddy Bears and the 2006 drive by Rotaract Club of Calgary Metro. The Rotaract Club is organizing its fifth annual Teddy Bear Drive. Two Club members, Ken Cheung and Brian Cheung....not relationship asked our club to pony up $400. The monies will be used to support the Pediatric Unit at Peter Lougheed Hospital. The funds will be used to purchase TV's, video games and so on. A good cause.

Christmas Kettles is a hot topic! Yes I can...No I can't but? One hole needs to be filled!

Before we forget, a wee vote of thanks to Jim Hennessey for bringing three speakers who talked about our role in Afghanistan. The three speakers brought us an important understanding of the role of our troops there and the importance of Canada being part of all of that. It helped us Remember. They all helped us understand.

Bill Hope reminded us the Integrity Awards would be held on March 5. Just $40 bucks. By the way....pay up front. What kind of integrity izdat.

Guest Speaker: Nick Simpson

Brian thanked our guest speaker, Nick Simpson

Taking us through the mechanisms of seeking information he referred to unscrupulous surveys, dumpster diving –where people go into garbage to look for personal information; shoulder surfing – looking over shoulders for information. When his speech was done, all of us could think more fully about protecting our core information.

During question, comment time Martin Harvey stood and told us about his son who was entrapped in two loans worth $20,000 with Wells Fargo Bank. The loans had been taken out some 12 months ago and only surfaced to his son a short time ago. Someone had taken out loans in his son's name and address and they were fraudulent. His son is going thru the arduous issue of attempting to recover his integrity and stop the loans. Not fun.
