Meeting Highlights

In the beginning - it is a cold morning, somewhere around - 16C but the moon is incredibly bright and in that essence the faithful begin to gather at the Temple of Gunn Barn. Chat, coffee, chat, coffee, laughter and chat, yet another wonderful beginning to a Rotary Club of Calgary Heritage Park meeting. With orange juice, coffee - whatever - we hurtle to our seats as President Asha bangs the gong with the gavel and attempts to bring us to ATTENTION! Joan Bedard leads us in O Canada, Ray Gosselin presents Grace in a mind-numbing soliloquy before

President Asha Paul

Asha says... LET'S EAT! There is something very special about this morning by the way. There are a lot of members of the Centennial Club with us as guests this day and all warmly welcomes them, which is because of our SPEAKER...but more on that later. There is something else very special this morning... the food. As we shuffle to the line there is a CHEF preparing omelets by demand (is that one omelet or two?) and they are out-standing. My tablemate, David McKeown looks at my plate, loaded with food and politely asks "do you need another plate?" Brian Humphrys, editor of this August publication is already taking pictures. By the way, Asha tells us that Martin Harvey isn't with us this morning. He lost a brother in Eng-

Guest Speaker: Chuck Masur Past District Governor

This is a day set aside to honour PDG Chuck Masur. He was District Governor when some members of the Centennial Club, like Al Hardstaff, Walter Zuk and Al Black thought it would be great to start a new Club (apologies to those I don't know about). Chuck was said to really promote the idea and instrumental in its creation...not always to the delight of the Centennial membership. Chuck was helpful and on this day he is to be honoured. He is leaving our City to go to Illinois on a two-year contract with an organization called DoctorsData. As a leading family doctor in Calgary, he will take his skills in looking at clinical needs and research in supporting family medicine. He will work from facilities in Dundee and live in St. Charles, Illinois. Chuck doesn't really deliver a land and has gone there, we all feel his pain and share it for a moment. I forgot to tell you that Al Black hosted the breakfast table and did his best to clean all the plates. Asha then tells us this is Rotary Awareness Month and titillates us with questions to determine our knowledge or lack of it. Did you know (or care) that there are 32,000 Rotary Clubs with 1.2 million members in the Rotary World? Asha is at her best this morning with quips that cause us to laugh (or groan).

In a minute – as usual some of our mates want a Minute. John Rademacher talks about a bowling night and it is sounding more and more like a night of fun. Bill Hope reminds us of the Integrity Awards being presented at Stagewest on March 3. We have not had a nomination from our Club as yet and time is moving on. Doug Kinley tells us that tickets for Winefest are on a table. That huge event is on February 28th and there is a lot to do.

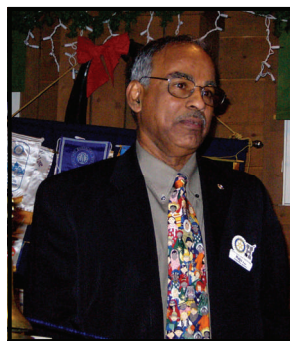

Another great meeting ends!

speech but in his comments on things like The Council on Legislation – Rotary's Parliament, there can be no question he is very comfortable in looking at the topside of Rotary leadership. Al Hardstaff spoke fondly to the Club about the role of the DG in helping create Heritage...and so did Walter Zuk. One could sense the bonds of friendship. Raju spoke of Chuck in influencing his own path in Rotary and how profound Chuck's role was in supporting Raju on his way to DG. There were some fun stories about traveling with Chuck...of missing passports at the like. Asha shook the hand of

Chuck and told him.... "Our Club has given $200 to Rotary International in your name."

Sometimes all of this reminds us of how important an individual can be in creating a positive impact for others. That seems to be the legacy of Chuck Masur, Past District Governor.

SUNSHINE REPORT

Al Hardstatt salutes the Birthday of Bob Clark who is 18 this week!

Happy Bucks

Happy Bucks - Bob Sadler stands and puts in a buck to declare his happiness of being back home from England, "Pip Pip" and all that. Raju puts in a loony because he is going away. Asha puts in a buck because Raju will be away for three weeks. Joan puts in a buck because she went nuts shopping at the Lulu lemon garbage sale! Din put in a buck. Rademacher puts in a buck because Haines died! (huh?). Walter Zuk - following a half hour speech puts in a buck to honour Chuck Masur and his role in creating our Club from Centennial. It is wonderful!

50/50 Jackpot

With a whopping $48.50 in the pot Marion Barrett draws a 50/50 ticket that belongs to guest Jim Fitzowitz - again. He recites with Four-Way test with ease but doesn't win this time.

Sheriff Dennis Tillotson: You're BUSTED!

Jeannette Pyle strides to the podium in on-nonsense fashion. Wham! Raju is fined a buck for being derogatory to women. Wham! To the Club for not remembering this days is Robbie Burns Day. Wham! To Barry Jarvis. Wham! To the entire male population of the Club for not saluting women who were allowed to become members of Rotary in 1989.

Trucking tycoon helps fund peace program

By Tiffany Woods

Rotary International News - 29 January 2008

Rotarian Al Jubitz remembers the time when he was 12 years old and another boy punched him in the face. His ego was bruised, but he learned a lesson: Peace is always better than fighting.

Now he hopes to see that lesson applied on a global scale. A member of the Rotary Club of Portland, Oregon, USA, Jubitz has pledged US$300,000 to endow five Rotary World Peace Fellowships, which will fund aspiring peacemakers as they pursue master's degrees.

"Rotary World Peace Fellows deserve a boost financially to follow their passion," says the retired trucking tycoon. "You've got to trust that if we plant seeds in these young people, good things will happen. That's why I support the program."

Jubitz, 63, graduated from Yale University but says he received his "formal education" in peacemaking in the late 1970s, when he was involved with the Creative Initiative Foundation (later called Beyond War). The group organized grassroots meetings in living rooms to educate people about the excesses of the Cold War arms race.

Today, he's particularly interested in fostering peace in Cyprus, where a United Nations-patrolled buffer zone separates Greek and Turkish Cypriots. "If we can create peace in Cyprus, we probably have all the ingredients for doing it in the Middle East," he says. Jubitz, who visited Cyprus in 2005, has helped fund Portland State University's Peace Initiatives Project, which aims to find a solution to the longstanding conflict on the Mediterranean island.

Through the Jubitz Family Foundation, he and his daughters have also awarded grants to Portland State University's conflict resolution graduate program, the Wholistic Peace Institute, and the Oregon Peace Institute, which Jubitz chaired in the 1970s.
