Our recent Meeting

By Joe Klassen

We have a chance to visit an old haunt, the Millarville Rancher's Hall. Our spirits are all in unison, as we sing the National Anthem and Din offers thanks on all our behalf. The Lone Ranger (or Loan Arranger?) has taken over leadership in some sort of mysterious shenanigans. Meredith introduces our guests which include Doug Scott, Kristi & Katie Rennie, Evan Strong, Sheila Tyminski and Sergio Valconi. Visiting Rotarians are Dave Marchant from Calgary South and Alan Stewart from Downtown.

In a 2-meeting in a row tradition, we have a new member, Jim Sawyers, handing out the plates at the trick-or-treat line.

We have a few people who need a minute:

John Radermacher continues to lobby valiantly for the Veteran's Food Bank, in a most timely manner. John's simple appeal is to consider the value of a ½ tank of gas for your vehicle as a rule-of-thumb for a contribution.

Martin Harvey pre-empted the Sunshine boy with a story from an Idaho Club with their great response to the DG on why they were too preoccupied to have him visit. Cute.

President Bob shares the story of an elderly woman who finds the lamp in the attic. When the genie reveals himself she has the chance to request wealth, beauty, and her cat to become a prince. Too bad about getting the cat fixed, though.

Rotarian of the Month

This month's honouree has travelled the nation fromn Saskatchewan to Montreal to Stettler and landed in Calgary. Having studied engineering at MacDonald college, this fellow found his love in Montreal and took her to a Florida honeymoon. They continue to golf and hike among other hobbies. Congratulations to Graham Drake.

50/50

At over $800 is starting to gain some momentum. However we have no winner today.

Happy Bucks and the Sherriff

Max is happy about 2 years of something, John R. Brings our attention to the 100 years of the Navy celebration, Din is happy about a Mayor with a little colour, and Joan is also happy (as usual). Sherriff Harry pulls some money from the crowd with a little wit and charm, and public roasting.

Today`s speaker: Anniina Pavilleinen
