HAPPY BUCKS: Many members recognized the Club Christmas Party last Thursday December 3, with a variety of accolades about the wonderful food & great fun, including the Caroling, various types of dancing, Karaoke song by Martin Harvey and so much more. Congratulations were offered to Jenny, Chair of the function and her committee!

Jamie Powell was very happy and lucky to find his bike which had been stolen from his garage overnight and ridden down the lane. Sheila Tyminski was very happy to report that her father who is 90, had been quite ill but has recovered and is doing great! Gary Gray is happy to be going to Saskatoon to attend his friend Nancy's family business Christmas party this weekend. Al Hardstaff donated to the cause for Gary's great classification talk. Bob Clark parted with a buck for the Flames winning.

SHERIFF: Christine Martin did a an admiral job of assessing fines to those who deserved by reminding all of the four way test and ante up for indiscretions such driving over the speed limit in the park, not wearing pins or badges and for those who never attended the Christmas party. Yours truly paid a dollar for not attending, which incidentally was the first one we missed since the Club was chartered due to our granddaughter's choir group singing at the Saddledome.

50/50 conducted by Phil Hochhausen $727.00 escaped from Richard Austins' grip.

Guest Speaker: Brian Semeschuck admirably handled the duties of introducing the guest speaker and his personal friend and club member Garry Grey.

Guest Speaker: Garry Grey
