FOUR WAY TEST

In all things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH ?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

In the beginning:

April showers bring may flowers – well not yet, but the first meeting in May and things are warming up, even a little sunshine!

Jim Sawers answered the call to lead our club in Harold's absence - NATIONAL ANTHEM: Led by: Joan Bedard, GRACE: By: Bob Clark

Stan Christmas did a rapid fire introduction as the breakfast buffet was calling out to his hungry eyes!

Visiting Rotarians were: Cliff Tyminski – Calgary North; Louise Tyminski - Rotaract; Kent Fraser – Fish Creek

Guests: Lorne Kelly – guest of Mark Rowe; Dave Morton – guest of Doug Kinley; Laura Kim, Don and Maureen Snyder – guest of Harry Kim

Pres-elect Jim tried a puzzle to guess the plate shiner but our savvy club members were quite quick (again anxious to chow down) – on the second piece of the puzzle Our plate shiner was identified as Harry Kim

Sunshine Report – Welcome to the returning snowbirds- Calgary is the place to be in the summer. With warm weather starting this week!

Spouse Birthdays: Bob's partner Tien's birthday on May 1

Anniversaries: Graham and Holly – 35 years on May 8; Ginny and Barry – 24 years on May 8

50/50	3
Duty roster	4

First on the agenda of presentations was the announcement by Christine Martin of new Paul Harris Fellows:

Mark Rowe

Don Snyder – Recognition from Harry and Laura Kim

Louise Tyminski – Recognition from Sheila Tyminski

Continuing Paul Harris Fellows this year are: Harry Kim, Bill Skinner, Leighton Fisk, Brad Sewall, Doug Macdonald, Bill Hope, Joanne Davis

Next on the agenda was Jim Coyle's classification talk entitled "Loving Life"

Jim feels he is known as a banker and there is nothing wrong with being a banker but that has been left behind. He calls himself a traveller – born in Ottawa – same year as the start of the Paul Harris fellowships, then started moving around – Ottawa, Aylmer, Seattle, Calgary, Edmonton, Vancouver and Kam-

Our meeting.

loops (his 3 children born there) finally back to Calgary.

He shared a photo of his family where he sported an Afro, which he only did trying to woo a cute stylist (unsuccessful, alas) but it matched up with his Volkswagen bug!

Kelly and Jim have been together 12 years – married for 10 and have a blended family of 5 kids.

Jim has been a Rotarian since 1988 – starting at Kamloops West Club – where he was president elect in 93 but transferred to Calgary so was not able to serve. SOSO now finally lined up 20+ years for our club president role! Joined downtown rotary club when he came to Calgary, and now 4 years in RCCHP and Loves it!

Career – Financial services (AKA banker) with a number of organizations: BMO, National Trust, Canadian Western Bank, Qtrade through first Calgary

Now, he is working on his passion: coaching – Certified coach since 2002

Focus on people and a values based approach to coaching- the Co-active coaching method. More can be found on his website www.miacoaching.com – Mastery in Action Coaching He was thanked by Leighton Fisk

MINUTES:

Doug Kinley Presented a cheque to Dave Morton with Youth Singers of Calgary Dave is a Co-director and has been with Youth Singers since 1988, first as a singer. RCCHP has donated $5,200 towards the start up of a new choir STAR young adult choir.

STAR (Special Talents in Arts and Recreation)– Youth Singers created an opportunity for special needs children (ages 8-15) , which has been running for 5 years. As they have grown they are now extending to a new STAR young adult Choir.

Shelter box Canada representative Kent Fraser was presented a cheque for $1,808 by Fran Hochhaus. ShelterBox – their goal is that no family be left without a shelter after a disaster.

Kent also put in a plug for another program of Fish Creek – I can for kids – mission to provide nutrition for students that don't have a program – food packs for children in poverty throughout the city. Rotary is collecting Peanut Butter – at Servus Credit unions and Save-on , June 5 from 5:30-8:00 pm. Need 50 rotarians – anyone wanting to help out – goal is 35,000 food packs – contact Kent.

Claire is going to district conference today – Reminded us of the International dinner invite June 3rd. There will be international food and entertainment from the students. She is providing Taiwanese snacks – a little help from her Mom who will be visiting at that time. Clare also reminded us of some of her wish list – tour of Edmonton, Lethbridge, horseback riding (Doug K has volunteered)

Joe Klassen says it is time to replace the club's laptop computer. Looking for someone that has a spare one at home or work – even a four year old one would work. If you have one please contact Joe.

Presenter and winner: Jim Coyle back at the podium for the 50/50 – Clare's number was drawn (thanks Phil!), but the joker was not, and still Clare continued smiling!

HAPPY BUCKS:

AI – Sunday July 9th is Hays Breakfast and set up on July 7, a reminder to mark our calendars and volunteer. Great event for our club and a good money maker.

Mark Rowe: last day of work today after 39 years

Walter - ultrasound – not pregnant. Daughter also ultrasound and pregnant (happy on both counts)

Sheila – thankful to be back from trek in Nepal. Donated school supplies and will share with club in the future. Proud dollars for Louise – all her work in Rotaract.

Rob – Great to be back –

Roger – Reminder that May 15th is deadline for early bird prize.

Don – in Vietnam to visit son who is teaching there – also 30th Anniversary
 Phil – re-announce summer challenge of Greenway opening on Sept 1st – oops interrupted by his phone – info on Rotary Mat-tamy Greenway summer challenge can be found at www.parksfdn.com/greenway150
 Jim Coyle – Golf committee reminder for prize donations
 Joan – Happy for 150 special tulips are blossoming – but sad that rabbits like it
 Ginny – happy to be back from travel for work – both kids did well at university and have summer jobs.
 Surinder – happy to be back from Palm springs and Sri Lanka.
 Harry – Laura's mom and Dad and Laura with him today
 Graham – 35 years of wedded bliss!

SHERIFF: Name: Richard walked up and was ominous with the dark classes – throat clearing that it is PAYBACK TIME.

Fines were rattled off quickly and often, but here are a few:

Volunteered for casino or golf will cost you

Stan introducing guests at high speed.

Walking in together – Ginny and Christine

Phil – 4 kph speed through park

Graham – Disparaging remarks about wedded bliss

Max (just because?)

Back from any where hot- pay up

Sheila Tyminski – still had money after trip- pay a little more

Phil – any cash left – phone ringing

Greg Smythe – just for being you!

Jamie Powell for being best dressed.... Every week

A few more for Phil – just because he is such an easy target.
