FOUR WAY TEST

In all things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH ?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

In the beginning:

Bill Hope was our efficient and enthusiastic greeter this morning, and "caught" me as soon as I was inside the door.

Door Sales were handled by Jim Davis, who kindly filled this role at the last minute.

Our Club President Jim Sawers opened the meeting with his usual Scottish wit.

Our National Anthem was ably led by Peter Harding

"Happy" Harry Kim delivered a great grace prior to our "full on" buffet breakfast.

Jim Davis did a great job of grabbing our attention for his announcements.

Phil Hochhausen enthusiastically introduced our guests.

Our guests included:

Jackie, Shelly, and Dave Kinley, guests of Doug Kinley,

Susan Cameron, Guest of Neil Cameron,

Kate, our exchange student,

Maureen Bedard, guest of Joan Bedard,

Dave Field, guest of Jim Coyle,

Dennis Pyle, guest of Jeanette Pyle,

Tyler Van Vleet, guest of Phil Hochhausen

Our meeting.

Our Plate Shiner Asha Paul kept up the plate shining and delivery pace admirably for the hungry lines of participants as she chatted away (obviously a multi-tasker "par excellence"), thanks Asha.

Doug Kinley introduced our guest speaker, Casey Eagle Speaker from the first Nations Blood Tribe, who was awarded the 2000 Chief David Crowchild award from the City of Calgary for his work in cross cultural awareness, as well as the Dr. Joseph Cow Shoe Award from the University of Calgary for his work within society. Casey has served on several boards including the Native Women's Shelter, 4 Directions Foster Parents, Ghost River Rediscovery, and the Alberta Association of Services for Children and Families. He gave an extremely fascinating and informative talk on the history of Treaty 7 Nations. He shared with us their 13,000 year history in what is now North America, and explained how the Blood Tribe acquired it's name (nothing to do with real blood at all, but red ochre). Casey has been working with Hull Services for the last sixteen years, and is involved with St.Mary's University cultural events.

Doug MacDonald thanked our guest speaker Casey Eagle Speaker - great job Doug.

Harry Kim did the Sunshine Report, which was short and sweet, (which gave Harry the opportunity to deliver a great joke about toll free phone calls from Hell... enough said !) : Congratulations to Dennis and Beth Tillotson who will celebrate their wedding anniversary on April 18th.

There were no birthdays.

Jim Sawers took the opportunity to thank Dave Kinley, Doug's brother, who, over the years, has generously helped our club by, amongst other things, donating the use of BBQs for the October Fest and other events.

Thanks to Dave on behalf of all our members.

There were many happy people at our meeting, so with apologies to those I have missed, this is just a small sample : John Radermacher - relieved that the major part of the preparation work for the Art Sale is all done, and only set up is left to do, Doug Hood has his summer tiers on already -I guess we have him to blame for all this snow then, Phil Hochhausen put in a happy buck in thanks for Casey's excellent talk, Brian Gentles (who has connections to the Humboldt hockey team), and Sheila Tyminski had happy bucks for the amazing response both from Canadians, and internationally for the Humboldt hockey team donations at approximately 10 million dollars, and a "go Jets go" for the Winnipeg Jets from Sheila. Bill Skinner had happy bucks in appreciation for all the volunteer effort that has gone into the Art Sale planning, and for our excellent guest speaker. Bob Clark and Phil Hochhausen both had some happy bucks in appreciation for Casey Eagle Speaker's excellent talk and all he is doing around indigenous issues. Asha had some happy bucks in appreciation for all the volunteer hosts for the Murder Mystery dinners which are starting shortly.

Our 50/50 tickets seller was Surrinder Khanna, and our 50/50 winning ticket holder was Brian Gentles, but he just couldn't find the elusive Joker.

Our Sheriff was Phil Hochhausen, delivered some fines to Bill Skinner for his "too long" update on the Second Chance Art Show, Max for his jersey (did he even have one on ?), and all the jersey wearers for being one day late !!! All tables with "jersey-less" occupants, had to pay up, so he basically fined the entire club - "mercy-less" - what more can I say.

Our President Jim Sawyers closed the meeting with a quote "Turn your face to the Sun, and your shadow will fall behind you." Not sure of the deep meaning on this one, Jim I will have to quiz you on that.

Our next meeting is April 20th, when our guest speaker will be Graham Sherman, on the "don't miss this one" topic of "Tool Shed Brewery".
