FOUR WAY TEST

In all things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH ?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Classification Talk - Robert J.J. Clark Esq.

Per his usual engaging style, Bob regaled attendees with the story of Rotary and how it positively impacted his life. Although he had been a member for a little while, the impact of membership was found later - a number of years ago, when personal tragedy struck, Bob remarked that after attending a Rotary meeting he realized that he would never be alone again, that by providing support and understanding a Rotarian would always have his back. He also noted a difference between being involved and being committed to a cause, and how one must choose how they engage. In Rotary we dare to dream and our good deeds are multiplied manyfold.

Bob concluded with a sentiment of thanks for the impact that the Magic Rotary has had in his life.

Motions:

Doug Kinley made a motion on behalf of International Service

Our meeting.

" On behalf of the International Service Committee I move that RCCHP provide $5600 of unrestricted funds to support Global Grant #1982630 for a WASH project in the schools of Quetzaltenango, Guatemala"

Bill Skinner gave a little more info. Sheila Tyminski seconded the motion. Motion was passed with a club vote.

50/50

Harry Kim ran the 50/50 draw. Eve picked the winning ticket and Wynn B was the winner. She recited the 4 way test like a pro, but the joker eluded her.

Happy Bucks - so many happy people, as at least 17 people stood to declare their joy.

Sheriff:

Velma Noble was the Sheriff, and attendees were fined for:

Not wearing green or red

Not finished reading the Nov issue of Rotarian

Not knowing the theme of the Dec issue

Velma had an abbreviated version of her charges due to time restrictions, but encouraged everyone to read the valuable resource of the Rotarian magazine.

Brad Sewall sent us off into the remainder of December with the thought of

"Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night!"
