FOUR WAY TEST

In all things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH ?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

In the beginning:

Our president Jim Coyle called the meeting to order at 7 sharp. Peter Harding led us in a rousing rendition of O Canada.

Neil Cameron introduced our guests:

Carla for Inclusion Alberta – hosted by Jamie Powell and Vocational Committee

Andrew Evans our guest speaker

Patricia Bailey – guest of Christine M

Norm Legarry - visiting Rotarian from Calgary West

Charlie Goldsborough – visiting Rotarian from Calgary West

All were invited to buffet table for breakfast with Neil Cameron being our plate shiner.

Business was reconvened at 7:20 when president Jim brought us back to order.

Guest Speaker:

Doug Hood introduced our guest speaker – Andrew Evans. Andrew's parents are friends of Doug's and he has curled with his dad for almost 40 years.

Andrew's talk was entitled My Journey, Tragedy, and Redemption. He prefaced his talk with a note that he was going to be covering some difficult subjects. Andrew chronicled his trials with drug and alcohol addiction, culminating in an ultimate tragedy in 2007. Throughout his incarceration, and ongoing today, he works today to help others on the road to recovery. He reminds people that they are not unlovable, unredeemable, unworthy. He tries to build his support network and encourages others not to go it alone.

He quotes “We are better together than we are apart”.

Peter Harding thanked our speaker for his honesty and for sharing his story.

Sunshine Report:

Stan Christmas shared our birthdays and anniversaries for 2 weeks due to no meeting being held next week.

Our meeting.

50/50:

Our amazing server and honorary member Joan Belick had her ticket drawn. We all joined in to help her out with the 4-way test, but the Joker eluded her. The pot continues to grow over $1000!

Happy Bucks:

Sheila Tyminski – happy for Mike Smith and the Flames

Mark Rowe- for recent travels and wedding anniversary

Norm Legarry – his son just joined Rotary

Martin Harvey – recognizing work and effort of the Art Sale crew, thanks to the speaker

Peter Harding – recognizing work and effort of the Art Sale crew, and thanked the speaker

Doug MacDonald – for safe travels and happy to be back home

Garry Gray – good work of Art sale crew, and trying to get a group together to take CPR – talk to Garry if you want to join in

Jim Coyle – for the exec for covering for him while he was away, and recognizing the passing of his father

Darryl Luhr – For Carla our Inclusion Alberta guest

Ted Wood – recognizing Bill and crew for Art Sale efforts

Peter Leigh – thanking the speaker, and to recognize all the hard work and fun at being on the Art Sale committee

Linda Campbell – recognizing the great Art Sale and how much she enjoyed it as it was her first year experiencing it

Walter Zuk – thanks to the speaker

Bad Brad – grateful for 2 weeks in the Caribbean and with thanks to the speaker

Christine Mihailades – thanks to the speaker, thanks for our guests, and thanks for all the hard work of the Art Sale crew.

Sheriff was Sheila Tyminski:

Her first fines were not paid because the culprits had left the meeting!

She conducted a quiz – questioned by table recognizing that spring hosts celebrations across many religions, and we were quizzed on our knowledge thereof.
