FOUR WAY TEST

In all things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH ?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

In the beginning:

Our venue today was in the Gasoline Alley. The meeting bell was rung at 7.00 am by President Brad and members quickly filled their coffee cups to join Peter Harding as he led the club in the singing of the National Anthem. After the National Anthem, Jamie Powell gave a heartfelt grace about showing gratitude.

While there were no guests to identify, Vannita Sapre's is technically a guest until her induction as a member was acknowledged. Ola Olutuyi had the pleasure of shining the plates.

After enjoying another great breakfast, Jamie Powell identified the member's birthdays of Jim Coyle and Doug MacDonald, spouse's birthdays of Matthew Knox's partner Nicole Guday and the Rotary anniversaries of Joe Klassen, Joan Bedard and Harry Kim. Jamie replaced the Sunshine joke with a thought provoking story asking us if we are living our lives with a passion and purpose that we are proud of.

Jim Coyle on behalf of the nomination committee (Jim Coyle, Brad Sewell, Doug MacDonald and Christine Mihailedes) introduced the nominations for next year's board:

Further nominations can be offered to the committee members or on election day. Jim also described the many benefits he received from his participation on the board.

Christine Mihailedes put forward two motions on behalf of the Community Service Committee regarding funding for Alcove Addiction Recovery for Women Society and Southwest Communities Resource Centre. Both motions passed.

Valentina gave her usual inspired report on her week's activities. Featured was her trip to Brooks where she visited Brad's Mother and experienced some heavenly nanaimo bars. She is also looking forward to some organized Halloween activities. Valentina also gave a heartfelt update on the news coming out of her home country of Chile and what caused the current hostility.

Fran Hochhausen let us know that our YEX student Sabrina was returning home. Fran identified that being an exchange student isn't always easy for all teenagers and that we make sure to welcome her back with open arms.

Christine Mihailedes updated us on the progress of Vanita Sapre on her way to becoming a member of our Rotary Club. Vanita said it was a big year for as she became a Canadian Citizen and was looking forward to becoming a Rotarian.

Jim Davis gave us a review of the Calgary Rotary Clubs Foundation. He explained some of the history of the foundation and how it works. Each Rotary club builds an endowment that they can draw from. The foundation is made up of a director from each Rotary club for a five year term. The directors administer and distribute at a current cost of .5%. The fund has a principle of $50 million dollars, of which Heritage's share is $63,000.00 of which we received earnings of $2,246.00 in 2019. Donations can come in any form and we determine recipients, who must be CRA eligible. Members who are interested in contributing can write a cheque to CRCF or make their contribution on line at www.calgaryrotaryfoundation.ca

Bill Skinner managed the 50/50 draw with a pot of $604.00. Greg Smyth had his ticket number drawn, but came up short with the card he picked.

There were lots of Happy Bucks. Featured Happy Bucks were Dennis's wife going to the Netherlands, Jim Coyle's birthday with all his family, Peter Harding winning big (golf cap golfing in Magrath), Stan Christmas moving in with Laura, Jenny's Pink Teas and Brad's trip to Brooks with Valentina and Bill.

Jamie Powell carrying a heavy load of responsibilities this meeting was also Sheriff this week. To help him, he deputized the three Jims (Coyle, Sawers and Davis) to help him fine men in plaid, members with perfect attendance records and Sheila and Joan for being smart with why the men in plaid were standing.

Brad closed with this week's wisdom "People never lie so much as after a hunt, during a war or before an election." Otto von Bismarck

Next week's speaker is District Governor Christine Rendell.
