TODAY'S PROGRAM

Jeremy Tick – New Member Presentation.

Jeremy spent his formative years traveling between two homes, one with his mom in Massachusetts and the other with his dad in New York. Traveling between the locations every two weeks by bus, he was drawn into the lifestyles found in magazines, like GQ.

By age 27, Jeremy was working in the world of modeling, representing individual models. At this time, he also earned a master's degree at Carnegie Mellon. In his thirties, wanting to maintain a sustainable pace to deal with health concerns, he changed jobs and moved to Virginia to be with his fiancé, Elizabeth.

While visiting relatives in Ann Arbor, they entertained the thought of moving to Detroit, a tour conducted by a friend sold them on the idea. They lived for 7 years across from the DIA before buying in Grosse Pointe. Jeremy is now the founder of Bespoke Life, a lifestyle concierge service.
