TODAY'S PROGRAM

Dr. Joseph Daniel-Hoste, Executive Director of Crossroads of Michigan

Founded in 1971 to help those without access to resources, Crossroads leverages innovative solutions to help people living in poverty. It provides clothing, a food pantry, personal hygiene products, ID retrieval, transit passes, and lunches for children – at no cost.

Trying to stay in its lane to be most effective, the organization partners with many other organizations, such as Goodwill and Covenant House. It envisions a community where everyone has the resources and opportunity to reach their potential. To learn more about their programs, as well as volunteer and donation opportunities, please visit www.crossroadsofmichigan.org.

MEETING RAFFLE

$121 in the new pot. Vince Van Tiem purchased the winning ticket but did not pick the joker so the pot grows.
