ROVING REPORTER

Evan Nguyen (in a fairly quick manner)

-- Liz Vogel recently participated in an event that served over 1,000 pancakes.

-- Paul and Jackie Rentenbach have closed on their new home in the Shores and will move sometime in July.

-- Tom Youngblood attended a Memorial Day event, which made him reflect on a couple of former Rotarians who were WWII veterans, Bruce Bockstanz and Ray Laenen.

-- The GP Library Summer Reading Kickoff will take place on 6/15.

-- Congratulations to Mark Cory who recently welcomed a grandson.

-- Bill Scott vacationed at Little Cayman, where the perfect weather allowed him to scuba dive 15 times.

SUNSHINE NEWS

No news.

OIL CAN

-- Postponed.

SERVICE PROJECTS

-- There will be three service projects this summer and sign-up sheets will soon be out: (1) three lunches at Crossroads, (2) working a produce stand at Northeast Guidance Center, and (3) purchasing supplies for a backpack giveaway to students in need.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

-- Beatrice Castro, a GP North student who will be attending Hope College, received a Sladen Scholarship. She was very appreciative and we wish her well.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

GP South Interact Club President Julianna Joseph, Vice President Elliott Gunnell, Secretary Wyatt Dennis and Treasurer Evan Nguyen

The Board decided to reduce the number of projects this year with the focus on quality over quantity. Activities that they participated in included:

Earthworks Urban Farm at the Capuchin Center, the Moross Greenway Project (2 times), Gleaners (3 times), SOC – fall clean-up & card making, Kids Against Hunger, Lunches + Love, SOAR Tutoring, the Polio Awareness Drive, RYLA, and several smaller projects such as Arts & Scraps, library book sale tear downs, and Angel Tree.

The Club consists of 127 students, with an estimated 30 active members. They meet weekly on Thursdays.

George McMullen, the Club liaison, thanked Kevin Cox for all he does and has done in his 10 years as the teacher advisor and Richard Yeager-Stiver for his continued support. He told of all that the underclassmen officers are achieving and the colleges that the seniors will be attending (Julianna – Oakland and Evan – Wayne State). Evan was awarded our Club's Interact Scholarship and was appreciative of the speaking and leadership skills that the Club has helped instill.

FLOWER RAFFLE

$260 in the pot with $130 going to the winner. Bob Lucas was hoping to pick the joker but it remains hidden. Thank you to Charvat The Florist for the beautiful arrangement.
