-- The Lunch Bunch meets every Friday at noon at Almas in GP Park. RSVP to Mike Carmody.
-- Next week's speaker is Mark Higbie, who will talk about the Michigan Central Station Art Program
-- The nominees for next year's boards and the president nominee have been determined and the ballots will be available soon. Thank you to all willing to put your hat in the ring.

-- The Family Center is hosting a Men's Nigh Out at the War Memorial on 11/8, where there will be a Q&A panel discussion about men's health by local experts
-- In honor of its 75th anniversary, the Little Blue Book is giving away an anniversary ring. To enter the drawing, please go to www.bluebooklocal.com

-- Higbie Maxon is sponsoring a presentation on Grosse Pointe Architect Robert O. Derrick at 7:00pm on 11/15 at the Ewald Library.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Jessica Keyser & Lexi Smith – "Appy Hour" with the GP Public Library. Ms. Smith, as the emerging technologies librarian, hosts a class teaching patrons to use the Apps available through the Library. The program runs in 6-week blocks and is based on the Library's mission statement, starting with: (1) Connecting – getting used to the Library website and learning how to download Apps; (2) Expanding – using the available Apps (MyLibrary - to search the catalog and check items out, Kanopy – where one can browse and borrow movies and tv shows, Libby and Hoopla – borrowing ebooks and audiobooks); and (3) Inspiring -- using Apps for games, being creative (learn how to sew), or learning languages.

Each of these two-hour classes offer live demos, provide one-on-one help, and all questions are greatly encouraged. To learn more, go to www.grossepointelibrary.org.

FLOWER RAFFLE

$190 in the pot. Tom Youngblood bought the winning ticket but was unable to find the joker.
