ROVING REPORTER

Lisa Gandelot

-- With more than 20 Rotarians in attendance, Lisa won a $20 bet with Jon. She asked that he donate it to Rotary.

-- Tom Youngblood is reprising his role as Santa Claus for the children in the GP Pre-K for the 43rd year.

Impressive!

-- John Minnis will be walking in the Detroit parade as part of the Detroit Goodfellows and will follow that up by also participating in the Grosse Pointe Parade. The GP News office will be open for a tour along with providing some food and beverages.

-- George McMullen was officially sworn in as a GP Woods Councilman. Congratulations!

-- Thank you to all who provided turkeys for Crossroads. 13 turkeys will feed well over 100 people.

-- Suzanne Klein will be heading to warm weather in Scottsdale, AZ tomorrow.

OIL CAN

-- Postponed.

SUNSHINE COMMITTEE

-- No news.

SERVICE PROJECTS

Diane Strickler

-- If able to help at the GP Santa Clause Parade on 11/23, please be at St. Paul at 9:30 AM or let George McMullen know.

-- The Club has committed to 25 volunteers to work at Gleaners from 1:30 to 3:00 on 12/2. So far, 16 have registered. If you need help with the online sign-up, please contact Phil Mackethan.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

-- Please get your election ballots to Mike Carmody.

-- If you plan on attending the Club's Christmas Party on 12/14, please provide your dinner preference to Mike Carmody ASAP. Cost is $25/person.

-- Operation Warm: Paul Rentenbach reported that 4,100 of the expected 4,800 coats to be delivered this year have been allocated to local organizations.

-- Roger McNeill Raffle.

Congratulations to Ted Hadgis for selling the grand prize winning ticket to his office staff! Ted sold 41 tickets this year and said that his staff has purchased a ticket every year of the Raffle. Thank you to all who participated in the buying and selling of tickets.

-- Paul Rentenbach will be taking coffee orders next week for a Detroit AM Club fundraiser.
