SUNSHINE NEWS
No news.

NEW MEMBER INDUCTION
-- Roy Bishop Jr, the GP Public School System superintendent, lives in GP Woods with his wife, Latoya, and their three children. He is following in the footsteps of former superintendents who were great Rotarians. Please make him feel welcome.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

-- 11/14: Food drive for the Second Mile Center at GP Memorial Church from 10:00am to 11:00am.
-- Through 11/18, we are in the middle of a hat/glove drive for Crossroads. Items can be brought to our meetings, or you can use the QR code on the flyer attached to Judy's Monday email to purchase through Amazon and have the items shipped to Michele Lindsey's house.
-- 11/27: Santa Clause Parade marshals are needed. A sign-up sheet was passed around, and you can also contact Ted Everingham directly if you would like to volunteer.

RI FOUNDATION
-- Roger Hull reminded us that we are part of an international organization that has an outstanding foundation to which we should all contribute. Every member should sign up under My Rotary on www.rotary.org. The website provides great information and allows you to make a donation or set up automatic donations.

TODAY'S PROGRAM
Lynn Gadzinski – New Member Presentation

Lynn was born and raised in a blue-collar home in Sheboygan, Wisconsin with her brother and two sisters. As a result, she is a lover of beer (and bourbon), brats, the GB Packers, cheese, and, jumping on the team's success this year, the Milwaukee Brewers.

Immediately after receiving her electrical engineering degree from the University of Wisconsin, Lynn began a 30-year career with GM. Her very demanding job required a lot of travel as well as working odd hours, which motivated her to retire at age 52. In retirement, she enjoys quilting, knitting, crocheting, and gardening and hopes to add more travel to that list.

A long-time resident of Grosse Pointe City, Lynn is the proud mother of two sons, Robert and Calvin (who, unfortunately, has passed away). A surprising fact about her is that she has a black belt in karate.

MEETING RAFFLE
$250 in the pot. Lola Perrone purchased the winning ticket but did not pick the joker so the pot grows.
