ROVING REPORTER

Lisa Gandelot

– Mark and Molly Brooks are heading to Copenhagen on Saturday to visit their son, Griffin, who is studying abroad for a semester.

-- Liz Vogel was questioned by the police as to why there were pieces of a glider on her front lawn. The answer: Johann was flying it to another destination.

-- Jessica Keyser and her family spent a week in the Adirondacks where they coincidentally camped in an area where Melville Dewey (Dewey Decimal System) was prominent.

-- Roger and Jean Hull are heading to New York for two weeks where they will be awaiting the birth of their first grandchild.

-- Steve McMillan made another impassioned recommendation to Facebook users to “friend” Anna Gleason, our outbound exchange student. Great pictures and posts.

-- Irena Politano reluctantly returned from two weeks in Pentwater to deal with the start of the school year for her children.

-- The Country Club of Detroit will be hosting a fundraiser for Cornerstone Schools on 9/15.

Nationally famous guests will be in attendance.

-- Bill Roche’s son has bought a house down the street from him on Barrington with plans to move there from San Fransisco. In the meantime, another son will be renting the home.

-- The hot weather gave us a chance to see Bill Rice, as it caused the cancellation of his 35 year Wednesday night tennis league.

SUNSHINE NEWS & OIL CAN

-- The DG golf outing is on 9/16. President Gary is looking for fellow golfers to join him.

TODAY’S PROGRAM

Jeffrey Huebner and Dan Hughes, GP Farms Foundation

The Foundation was formed in the early 1980s and has raised over $2 million towards 20 small and large projects. They have included the Dog Park and the Kerby Field gazebo. Future projects will focus on the Farms Pier. As a way to show off the Pier to all of GP, the Foundation is hosting its 11th Concours D’Elegance from Noon to 3:00 PM on 9/30. 195 unique, classic, and vintage GP owned cars will be showcased. www.grossepointefarms.org.

FLOWER RAFFLE

$708 in the pot with $354 going to the winner. Rhonda Linton was a team player by not picking the joker. Thank you to Charvat The Florist for the beautiful flower arrangement.
