

I THOUGHT THE DRYER MADE
MY CLOTHES SHRINK.

TURNS OUT IT WAS THE REFRIGERATOR.

Last night I ordered a glass of wine with my dinner, and the waiter asked for my ID. I replied "do I look that young?" and the waiter said "No. I just wanted to see if you qualified for the Senior Citizen discount."

It's perfectly OK to talk to yourself and it's perfectly OK to answer yourself. But it's totally sad that you have to repeat what you said because you weren't listening.

Last night, my wife asked me if I'd seen the dog bowl. I said, "I didn't know he could."

My Uber driver is constantly talking about Marijuana and all the ways to smoke it. Gonna be real awkward here in about 10 minutes when he drops me off at home and my patrol car is parked in my driveway.

When I was little, I didn't care what I wore. I just went along with what my parents chose.

When I look in old photo albums, I realize that they didn't care either.

IF A MAN SAYS
HE WILL FIX IT
HE WILL
THERE IS NO NEED TO REMIND HIM EVERY 3 MONTHS

I've just renamed my wifi network to "Police Surveillance Van #02". That should keep the neighbors on their toes for a while

Welcome

Maura Fitzpatrick
Fundraising Specialist
Plea Children of the Street

Maura works to raise the funds needed to provide Children of the Street's free programs and services. With almost 30 years of fundraising experience, she enjoys working with individuals, community groups, businesses, and foundations to help them learn more about child/youth sexual exploitation and how they can help keep kids safe from this crime.

Children of the Street was founded in 1995, when a group of parents from the Lower Mainland united after their children were sexually exploited.

Sexual exploitation involves children/youth being manipulated into exchanging a sexual act for money, drugs, shelter, food, transportation, love, acceptance, or other needs. Victims can be of any age, gender, sexual orientation, income level, geographic location, or religion. Exploiters prey on the vulnerability of young people.

Human trafficking is very commonly confused with human smuggling and is thought to be an issue that happens only in developing countries.

"Sexual exploitation of children and youth is hidden. You can continue to be blind to it and do nothing, or educate yourself and help prevent it from happening."
