

Police have confirmed that the man who tragically fell from the roof of an 18th floor Nightclub Was not a bouncer

MY WIFE ASKED ME WHY I SPOKE SO SOFTLY IN THE HOUSE. I SAID I WAS AFRAID MARK ZUCKERBERG WAS LISTENING! SHE LAUGHED. I LAUGHED. ALEXA LAUGHED. SIRI LAUGHED.

Finland has just closed their borders.
No one will be crossing the finish line.

This would be funny except there's no punch line...

Meeting starts at 7:15 am

Welcome to

Kathleen Nadalin

ICBC Road Safety Coordinator

As an ICBC Road Safety Coordinator, Kathleen works closely with community stakeholders and partners such as police, community volunteers, school board and municipal representatives. She works collaboratively on developing, executing, and evaluating road safety programs and projects of varying size and complexity.

She is responsible for campaign and project budgets and allocating funds to effectively promote and support road safety initiatives. She is also a primary point of contact for media and community stakeholders on loss prevention and road safety programs and initiatives within the Tri-Cities.

Kathleen is competent at conducting large scale presentations to enhance awareness of road safety and loss prevention issues to various stakeholders and acts as a technical resource on loss prevention and road safety programs and products.

She started her career at ICBC in 1998 in the Driver Licensing Division and was quickly promoted to the Customer Contact Department. In 2000, she was promoted into her current role in Road Safety.

Kathleen has a degree in Business Administration with a focus on Entrepreneurial Leadership, a diploma in Marketing Management and a diploma in Business Management from Douglas College.

Kathleen is proud to call Port Coquitlam home since 1986. She enjoys spending time with her husband and two kids in the many beautiful outdoor spaces the Tri-Cities have to offer.

Road safety takes everyone

Together we all make B.C.'s roads safer.

Gordon McInally
2023 - 2024
President Rotary International

RI President-elect R. Gordon R. McInally calls for Rotary to create hope in the world by working for peace and mental wellbeing. He urges members to engage in tough conversations and earn the trust that's necessary to realize these values.
