Rotary Serving Humanity

My Fellow Rotarians,

January is Vocational Service Month in the Rotary world. Vocational Service is Rotary's second Avenue of Service which calls on every Rotarian to work with integrity and contribute their expertise to the problems and needs of society. To learn more of the concept of vocational service, please check out Rotary International's website at: <https://www.rotary.org/myrotary/en/learning-reference/about-rotary/guiding-principles>

The handbook "An Introduction to Vocational Service" will provide you with ideas to help you practice vocational service through your club activities. Vocational Service is the very essence of Rotary and is what sets us apart from other service organizations.

You still have five months left of the DG Membership Challenge so I encourage you to check out your club's roster to see what vocations you may be missing and use this opportunity to continue building and strengthening your club. Remember, our various professional skills do assist in serving our communities.

Last month I asked several questions about your Club and believe it is worthwhile to repeat them this month. How is your Club doing with:

- the election of your President and Directors for 2017-18?
- input of your Club goals into Rotary Club Central?
- advancement of the requirements for achieving a Presidential Citation?
 - a strategy for the DG Membership Challenge?

If you are having issues answering some of these questions, please contact your Assistant District Governor for assistance.

And last but not least, I trust everyone enjoyed the Holiday Season. I wish you all a Happy New Year and all the best for a great 2017.

Yours In Rotary,

Jim

District Governor Jim Louttit at jvlrotary@gmail.com

From District Governor Elect Neil Phillips

My Fellow Rotarians,

Happy New Year to all from France!

While it's a new calendar year, preparations are in full swing for our next Rotary year, commencing July 1st. Later this month I am off to San Diego, where all incoming Governors-Elect gather for a week of training and sharing of ideas. We'll also hear from Rotary International President Elect Ian Riseley, and his goals for the next Rotary year. In our district, of course, the one overriding goal you'll hear repeatedly from me is: come together and do all we can to make the 2018 Rotary International Convention in Toronto a huge success.

As we make plans for the next year, perhaps it's time to ask yourself if you are interested in offering your skills at the District level? I'd be happy to hear from any of you.

Wishing everyone the best for the new year.

Yours In Rotary,

Neil

Rotary International President John Germ's Monthly Message – January 2017

Dear Fellow Rotarians:

As we enter 2017, we also enter the second year of the initiative known as the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. These goals, usually referred to as the SDGs, pertain to a list of 17 areas where the people of the world can come together to address our most pressing economic, political, and social challenges. It is a hugely ambitious list, and it has to be. The ultimate aim of these goals is nothing less than peace, prosperity, security, and equality for all of humanity.

How do you even begin to tackle such a project ?

At Rotary, our answer is simple: one step at a time. These goals are nothing new for Rotary: They're already reflected in our areas of focus. We also understand that all of these 17 goals, just like our six areas of focus, are interrelated. You can't have good health without clean water. You can't have clean water without good sanitation. Good sanitation in turn helps keep children in school, which improves education, which improves economic prosperity and health. When you are talking about the advancement of an entire planet, no one indicator, no one goal, no one country, exists in isolation. To make real and lasting progress, we must all move forward together. The idea of sustainability is key to the SDGs - and to our service in Rotary.

Sustainability simply means making progress that will endure. It means not just digging a well, but being sure that a community can maintain it. It means not just running a health camp for a week, but training local health workers. It means empowering families and communities to take charge of their own futures by giving them the tools they need to succeed.

Sustainability has always been at the heart of our thinking in Rotary. We've been around for nearly 112 years and intend to be around for many more. We've already seen the difference our work has made: in health, in education, in water and sanitation, and of course in our efforts to end polio.

Polio eradication is the ultimate in sustainable service: a project that, once completed, will benefit the world forever. And those benefits will go far beyond the eradication of a single human disease. The estimated cost savings we will see once polio is eradicated are about $1 billion per year. That is money that can be returned to public health budgets and directed to other pressing needs, carrying the good work of today forward for many healthier tomorrows.

Rotary Foundation Chair, Kaylan Banerjee's Monthly Message - January 2017 - Celebrate The New Year

Dear fellow Rotarians,

January make the heart of a new year Sun many calendar, but in Rotary, we begin our year in July. That puts us at the halfway point - a good time to take stock of our progress and set goals for the remainder of the year.

An annual to-do list for The Rotary Foundation might include the following items:

- Contribute to the End Polio Now campaign to take advantage of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation's 2-to-1 match.
- Start a simple or large-scale project in your community supported by a grant and keep the community informed.
- Recommend a promising candidate for the Rotary Peace Centers program.
- Host a Rotary Scholar or vocational training team.
- Enroll in Rotary Direct for easy recurring giving.
- Include a bequest to the Foundation in your estate plan.
- Apply for a Rotary International credit card, which allocates a portion of each purchase you make to The Rotary Foundation.

As you can see, there are many ways to support our Foundation and carry out its humanitarian mission. This year, we have another item to add to our checklist: Celebrate The Rotary Foundation's centennial.

Here are some of the ways you can observe this milestone:

- Work with your club to plan a birthday party, fundraiser, or event in your community to let others know more about Rotary and its Foundation. Download a promotion kit from rotary.org/foundation100 for ideas.
- Promote your club's Foundation grant projects to local media.
- Dedicate club meetings to the discussion of Rotary Foundation topics.
- Read the history of The Rotary Foundation in Doing Good in the World: The Inspiring Story of The Rotary Foundation's First 100 Years. Copies are available in hardback or e-book format at shop.rotary.org.
- Share your centennial plans and events on social media using #TRFIOO.

Of course, the biggest birthday party of all will take place in Atlanta from June 10 to 14, when thousands of Rotarians will come together for the Rotary International Convention. I hope you will join me and the Foundation Trustees to make this the best party of the year.

BREAKING NEWS FROM THE ROTARY FOUNDATION:

Dear Rotarians, District Rotary Foundation committee chairs and grants subcommittee chairs:

For three years beginning January 1, 2017, Rotary clubs and districts will be able to use global grants for the construction of low-cost shelters and simple schools, under a change approved by Foundation Trustees in September. However, the construction must be a part of a comprehensive project related to an area of focus. Construction by itself will not be eligible for global grants. The low cost shelters guidelines and application appendix are available now in English. Translated versions will be coming soon. The information for simple schools will also be available soon.

You can send questions to rotarysupportcenter@rotary.org.

Our Rotary Foundation

From Bill Patchett, Chair District 7070 Rotary Foundation Committee

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

Here we are in January 2017, and what better time than now, to ask all Rotarians to think about supporting our Rotary Foundation. You will be making a difference in so many ways throughout the world. Rotarians do make the world a better place.

Has your Rotary Club committed, again this Rotary Year, to donating at least $20.00 PER Rotarian to PolioPlus.

Has everyone in your Club, this Rotary Year, made that came commitment to personally donate $20.00 for the eradication of Polio? Again, this Rotary Year, the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation will match our contributions on a 2 for 1 basis. And we sure would like every Rotarian in District 7070 to do the same in 2016-17. Yes, we are very close! You are making a difference !

Only two Clubs have not yet sent in their objectives to me . How many of you have entered them in to Rotary Club Central, for the 2016-17 Rotary Year yet? I sure hope that your Rotary Club has set your goal for contributing at least $ 100.00 US for each member of your club for Annual Giving to the Annual Programs Fund of the Rotary Foundation. I hope all District 7070 Clubs that have already made that commitment to the Rotary Foundation and I hope that all of you will keep up the good work to reach your goal. This is where we get our money for Grants. Last year, we did have 100% in commitments met. Has your Club made plans to make that donation yet? Are your goals and plans in Rotary Club Central?

If we want to reach our goal for this year and next, we would like to see $ 100.00 US from every member, in every Rotary Club. This is our commitment to the Every Rotarian Every Year Campaign of the Rotary Foundation - EREY (Every Rotarian Every Year).

Our Rotary Foundation provides the money for our Grants Program. The Grants can be used for both local and international projects. It is interesting to note that more of you are applying for Grants. This is most encouraging. On the other hand, these applications require us to raise more money for Foundation. Please encourage your Treasurer to send in your commitment. I would also encourage the Assistant District Governors to check on their clubs and their progress.

Are there any prospective Major Donors in the District? Please let me know if you or someone you know wishes to take this next step to support Our Rotary Foundation.

Many thanks to all of you for your support.

Attention All Rotarians in District 7070 – We Need Your Help

Dear Canadian Rotarians:

I am pleased to advise that the match funding from the government of Canada, C$12 million in total, has been fully paid earlier than expected thanks to the continued generosity and effectiveness of Rotarians in raising funds, and doing so at a rate that was faster than projected.

We are now asking the government for a further commitment which would include a matching contribution to Canadian Rotarian club contributions. It's unlikely that an answer to our request will be heard until the next budget is filed (March 2017 or later).

MPs will soon be back in their ridings for the holiday break. We would encourage you to thank your MP for Canada's continued support and encourage Canada's continued leadership. Please click here to download documents* that highlight the rationale for Canada's continued support as well as the history of Canada's leadership and collaboration with Rotary in support of a polio free world. Please feel free to share these documents with your MP and/or use them as a reference for your outreach.

With the centenary of The Rotary Foundation, and the 150th anniversary of Canada, 2017 promises to be a great year. Our continued collaboration may also result in the interruption of polio transmission which would be a fantastic achievement to celebrate at the Rotary International Convention in Toronto in 2018.

Thanks for your continued work to END POLIO NOW.

January is Vocational Service Month

From: Ian Lancaster, Chair, District 7070 Vocational Service Committee

A Short History Lesson

January is Vocational Service Month on the Rotary calendar. Vocational Service is at the heart of Rotary, which was founded on the classification system of membership. Business and professional life are the bedrock of Rotary, and Vocational Service is a major force in promoting honour, integrity, and trustworthiness in business.

Originally only one representative from each business or profession was invited to join a club. Paul Harris felt that if several members of the same profession were to join, they would either sit together and “talk shop” or compete against each other for other members’ business. The idea of “trade-boosting” was gradually eliminated and by 1912, Rotarians were no longer required to exchange business with one another.

The Forgotten Avenue of Service

Of Rotary’s five Avenues of Service* – Club, Vocational, Community, and International – Vocational is difficult to define, so it is sometimes called the “Forgotten Avenue of Service”. One reason is Club, Community, International and Youth Service activities usually involve groups of Rotarians. They enjoy the fellowship of Club Service, the satisfaction of serving the needs of their communities, and the hope that their International Service promotes world peace and understanding. But Vocational Service – the second Avenue of Service -- is generally conducted by individual members.

Service Above Self

Rotary’s early leaders often cited the Golden Rule – “Do unto others as you would have them do unto you” – as the guiding principle of Rotary’s Vocational Service. By the time the National Association of Rotary Clubs held its first convention in 1910, the networking emphasis had begun to shift. The majority of clubs told the new Civic Committee that Rotary should move from being a booster club to improving their communities. The concept of “he profits most who serves his fellows best” became “he profits most who serves best”. This idea morphed into “Service, not Self” and finally, it became the Rotary slogan we know today -- “Service Above Self”.

In 1940, Rotary International defined the Object of Vocational Service “to encourage and foster: high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society.” Today’s Rotarians still pride themselves on being able to use their professional stature and knowledge to make things happen worldwide, wherever there is a need for change.

The Rotary Code of Ethics

Back in 1912, when Glenn Mead succeeded Paul Harris as President of Rotary International, he recommended a code of business ethics be formulated to contribute to the advancement of business morality. At that time, there were no consumer protection laws or truth-in-advertising statutes. Fraudulent and deceptive business practices were the norm. The unwritten law was caveat emptor, “Let the buyer beware.” Since the adoption of the Rotary Code of Ethics in 1915, at least 145 national industrial codes of conduct practice have been adopted as a direct result of the influence of Rotarians.

The Four-Way Test

Rotary’s current code of ethical conduct – The Four-Way Test – was developed during the Great Depression, by a Rotarian, Herb Taylor, from the United States, as a four-part ethical guideline that helped him rescue a beleaguered business.. The code's four points are simple and direct – “Of all the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?”

The Four-Way Test was officially adopted by Rotary in 1943 and has been translated into the languages of over 100 countries. It appears on highway billboards, in schoolrooms and on the walls of businesses, in labour contracts, courtrooms and halls of government. It's even on the moon, in the form of a Four-Way Test pin planted on the surface by astronaut Buzz Aldrin!

The Heart of Rotary

Vocational Service remains at the heart of Rotary. In 1987-88, RI President Charles C. Keller reinvigorated the Avenue by appointing the first Vocational Service Committee in 50 years. The committee redefined how clubs could more effectively participate in Vocational Service and drafted the new Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions.

Today, with over 1.2 million members in more than 33,000 clubs in nearly 200 countries, Rotary provides humanitarian service, promotes high ethical standards in all vocations, and helps build international understanding, goodwill and peace.

An exciting, and fairly new project -- Rotary at Work – is championed by District 7070 Rotarians Joe Dale and Mark Wafer. It encourages Rotarians from all across Canada to create employment opportunities and fill vacancies in their businesses with individuals who have a disability. Rotary at Work connects employers to local employment agencies if needed.

And here is More info on Vocational Service

From: Ian Lancaster, Chair of the District 7070 Vocational Service Committee

The Rotary monthly theme for January is Vocational Service. Another Rotary year is half over and Governor Jim has shared his vision during his club visits, along with President John's theme of “Rotary Serving Humanity”.

By way of introduction for those who don't know me, my name is Ian Lancaster, a member of the Rotary Club of Toronto Sunrise in downtown Toronto. My classification is 'Nursing – Palliative Care' and I am the Chair of both your District Vocational Service and Vocational Training Team Committees for the Rotary year 2016-2017. My vocation has given me a rare insight into life. I'm very, very fortunate to be able to help guide people at the most difficult time in their lives.

I want to share with you some of those insights that have come my way through personal experience, considerable research and a little soul-searching.

One of the most important steps you can take toward achieving your greatest potential in life is to learn to monitor your attitude and its impact on your work performance, relationships and everyone around you.

What attitude do you bring to work with you? No puzzled looks please. In general, people don't have a high level of attitude awareness. They'll know if they're hungry or if their feet hurt, but they usually don't have a good handle on their attitude. That's a mistake because attitude is everything. It governs the way you perceive the world and the way the world perceives you.

We all have a choice. We can choose an inner dialogue of self-encouragement and self-motivation, or we can choose one of self-defeat and self-pity. It's a power we all have. Each of us encounters hard times, hurt feelings, heartache, and physical and emotional pain. The key is to realize it's not what happens to you that matters; it's how you choose to respond.

As we have often heard, your mind is a computer. It can be programmed. You can choose whether the software installed is productive or unproductive. Your inner dialogue is the software that programs your attitude, which determines how you present yourself to the world around you. You have control over the programming. Whatever you put into it is reflected in what comes out.

Many of us have behaviour patterns today that were programmed into our brains at a very early age. The information that was recorded by our brains could have been completely inaccurate or cruel. The sad reality of life is that we will continue to hear negative information, but we don't need to program it into our brains.

The loudest and most influential voice you hear is your own inner voice, your self-critic. It can work for or against you, depending on the messages you allow. It can be optimistic or pessimistic. It can wear you down or cheer you up. You control the sender and the receiver, but only if you consciously take responsibility for and control over your inner conversation.

Habitual bad attitudes are often the product of past experiences and events. Common causes include low self-esteem, stress, fear, resentment, anger and an inability to handle change. It takes serious work to examine the roots of a harmful attitude, but the reward of ridding ourselves of this heavy baggage can last a lifetime.

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or a profession, you are expected to bring your best attitude with you and consider your profession as an opportunity to serve.

What incites you to take action to change your life and the lives around you? Basic motives include love, self-preservation, anger, financial gain and fear. Self-motivation requires enthusiasm, a positive outlook, taking care of your health, and a belief in yourself and your God-given potential.

With your progressive attitude, you'll do everything in your power to distinguish your profession and promote its highest ethical standards. You'll be fair and respect all you come in contact with, whether personal or professional, and offer your skills to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in your community and the community at large.

Your affirmation as a Rotarian is to serve humanity through your vocation/profession and to do good in the world. When you have the right attitude, you can do the remarkable!

In Rotary's Service,

Ian

Ian E. Lancaster RN, CPN, CHPCN(C)

What Vocational Service projects is your Rotary Club doing? What are your plans?

Vocational Service focuses on:

- Adherence to and promotion of the highest ethical standards in all occupations, including fair treatment of employers, employees, associates, competitors, and the public.
- The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, not just those that are pursued by Rotarians.

- The contribution of your vocational talents to solving the problems of society and meeting the needs of the community.

During January, Rotarians are encouraged to focus on this important avenue of Rotary service. Discussions on vocational service can lead to projects that not only develop the ethical consciousness and vocational skills of Rotarians but also the talents within their communities. Vocational Service Month is an opportunity to begin year-long vocational service activities, ranging from Rotary discussions to awards to community projects.

Following are some suggested activities to undertake during Vocational Service Month:

- Devote the first meeting in January to examining the second Avenue of Service, including The FourWay Test and The Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions. After expanding members' awareness, solicit their input in planning projects for the remainder of the year. How about a Four Way Test Plaque at the entrance to the council chambers in your town or city, or provincial legislature, or even the House of Commons? Invite an "Ethics" speaker to speak at one of your Club meetings.
- Introduce a "mini-classifications talk" series in which each member gives a five-minute talk on his or her vocation. Schedule one speaker for the beginning of each meeting until everyone has made a presentation. The purpose of these talks is to promote vocational awareness among Rotarians and help them recognize the worthiness of all useful occupations.
- Present a vocational award to someone in the community who has exemplified outstanding professional achievement while maintaining very high ethical standards. Promote the presentation within the community, and consider making it an annual January event.
- Invite experts to give a presentation on the vocational needs of the community and develop a project in response to those needs. Possible projects could focus on developing character, providing career information to youth, mentoring small businesses, or organizing workshops that provide employees with new skills.

Important Rotary Dates in January / February 2017:

From Heather Lennie, a Rotaract member who is our ambassador for The Free Reading Program.

In June 2016, the Rotary Club of Scarborough began promoting The Free Reading Program. This is an online literacy initiative with a social media twist. In 6 months, we provided the program to over 1,200 families. Kids access thousands of online literacy activities designed for ages 4-12. At the same time, we have dramatically increased our social media reach.

We have received many heart felt testimonials from parents that are grateful their children can access fun, yet effective reading activities at home. We are able to spread word about the program through Facebook, flyers, etc. At the same time, the families we help are learning about Rotary. Examples of our increased social media reach include growing our Facebook fans from 99-1,700 in just 6 months. It's not uncommon for our posts to be seen by around 70 thousand people each month, resulting in membership inquiries and increased awareness about how our Rotary club helps our community.

This project has allowed us to deliver a modern literacy program while improving our interactions with the community. Our Rotary Club was the best kept secret in town and we are happy this program has helped us change that.

If you're interested in learning more, feel free to sign up for the program at <http://www.rotaryclubscarborough.org/> As other Rotary Clubs are learning about the program they are launching the initiative in their area as well. The program has already been picked up by 14 Rotary clubs in Ontario and an international club in Bangladesh. There is no cost to join the initiative. The responsibility of your club is to promote the program in your area. We want to help as many kids as possible.

Here is a feedback letter dated Sept 30, 2016 from a parent:

"Hello,

I absolutely love this program. I have a child that is 2 years developmentally delayed and has memory / language issues. This program has allowed her to practice various skills that she is struggling to learn in the classroom. I am thrilled this program allows her to go back and relearn skills when needed. I have not found that type of support in any other learning program. Please keep up the good work in developing programs like that that can help a young child develop necessary learning skills. I would like to see this program expand to include either grade elvels as well. Karen"

SHELTERBOX News For January 2017

At last, heartwarming photos of Aleppo's children receiving ShelterBox aid

At one point this is a photo we thought we'd never see. Thousands of Aleppo families bussed out of the world's most war-ravaged city to be greeted at displacement camps, and given clothing and other aid that has waited at a tantalising distance for months.

This image just received at ShelterBox's Cornwall HQ shows aid workers from in-country partner, London-based Hand in Hand for Syria, greeting the most vulnerable of the exodus from Aleppo. The aid shown is hats and scarves - essential as it has started to snow in the region - and other non-food items supplied by ShelterBox. It is part of an ongoing program to help families displaced by the Syrian civil war.

ShelterBox Operations Co-ordinator Sam Hewett says, "The fighting in and around Aleppo that has been broadcast in recent weeks is indicative of the intolerable position that people throughout Syria are forced to endure.

"Due to the support of our generous donors, ShelterBox has been able to support people as they are evacuated from the city with items such as clothing and bedding, to shelter them from the cold winter conditions. This would not be possible without the presence of our partner organizations, whose staff share the same fatal risks as the people they are trying to help."

Fleeing from war-torn Mosul across the border into Syria

Which way to run from war-torn Mosul? How desperate do you have to be to flee across the border into Syria?

Syria seems the very opposite of safety or sanctuary. As aid agencies in Iraq steel themselves for a possible outpouring from Mosul, global disaster relief organization ShelterBox and its partners find that even Syrian camps are now becoming a haven for families on the run.

Mosul in Iraq, home to over a million civilians, is now trapped by an intense battle to reclaim the last ISIS stronghold in the country. At any point, in any numbers, in any direction, hundreds of thousands could suddenly be on the run from warfare.

Some 82,000 civilians have fled Mosul and nearby areas so far, and the United Nations is preparing for a worst-case scenario in which more than a million people are made homeless as winter descends.

'Children and their families in Mosul are facing a horrific situation. Not only are they in danger of getting killed or injured in the cross-fire, now potentially more than half a million people do not have safe water to drink,' said UNICEF's Iraq representative Peter Hawkins.

Now, reports from a partner organization in Hasake Governorate point to significant numbers fleeing east from Mosul into Syria. New Zealand based ReliefAid is one of ShelterBox's long-standing distribution partners. Likewise London-based Hand in Hand for Syria, delivering ShelterBox tents and warm clothing to Syrian displacement camps, also finds some beneficiaries are from Mosul.

ReliefAid Executive Director Mike Seawright says, 'We recently completed our distribution in Syria's North Eastern Hasake Governorate, bordering Iraq. We were supporting a refugee camp in which 80% of the families were from Mosul or surrounding areas.'

All ShelterBox partners in the Syrian region – ReliefAid, Hand in Hand for Syria, ACTED and new associates Czech-based People in Need - deliver life-saving aid to communities under fire, working in some of the most dangerous places on earth, security issues dictating discretion and a low profile.

Alongside ongoing work in the Syrian region, ShelterBox has been preparing for whatever Mosul will create in terms of humanitarian need. Via ACTED, households in Northern Iraq have already received basic shelter-related kits from ShelterBox, and tents and aid are pre-positioned ready to deploy as families are displaced from the fighting. 1,000 beneficiary households in Ninewa and Erbil Governorates will receive first line shelter support. Thousands of lightweight tents are also on standby, for use in agreement with Shelter Cluster leads.

ShelterBox Response Team member Rachel Harvey has just ended a deployment to Iraq, including a field visit to locations in Ninewa province where aid convoys have to pass through several military checkpoints. Rachel said of this journey, 'The close proximity of the fighting is really striking. One minute you are drinking coffee in a hotel, an hour and a half later you are driving through an obliterated village on your way to deliver aid to people displaced by a conflict you can hear being waged on the horizon. The distance between peace and relative prosperity, and the devastation of war is frighteningly short.'

Aleppo, Mosul, now Raqqa. ShelterBox and its international partners stand ready to help families on the run from war wherever it is safe to do so. But this region will soon be in the grip of an icy winter, with storms and freezing overnight temperatures a real threat to families trapped in ruined cities, fleeing across desert or up into the mountains.

The work we do to support some of the most vulnerable families around the world isn't always easy. More families than ever before are being forced from their homes due to natural disasters and conflict. It gives us great joy and hope knowing that we have someone like you on our team.

Please take a moment to let us say thank you:

Rotary News

In-kind donation drives to First Nation communities are growing. Since we introduced the initiative in our last month's newsletter, goods have been sent to approximately 15 communities. Saint-Michel Catholic Elementary School in Leamington, ON collected 68 plastic totes of food (pasta, rice, oats), clothing, hockey equipment and toys bound for Bearskin Lake First Nation. You can read the entire story on our blog. This would not be possible without the teamwork and partnership of HIP (primarily John Andras and John Currie), Trucks for Change, Wasaya Airlines, Mackie Transport, Mackie Transport and Gardwine Transport.

The KichenuhmaykoosibInninuwug (KI) community also recently received donations of warm outerwear including 1,100 coats, mitts, toques, scarves, sweaters, snow pants, boots, etc.).

Neskantaga too were recipients of many items provided by Lakefield and renowned Indigenous artist, Joseph Sadaq - his home community.

We have received a report of all the great work being done and you can find it under HIP In-Kind 2016 Report on our website (Rotary HIP - Powerpoint Presentations).

There has been such interest shown in this initiative, we will be working with the Chiefs of Ontario and others to ensure it is appropriately organized. We do not want it to be viewed as a charity model as it is a unique opportunity to expand awareness, education and reconciliation for the participants. We will keep you posted on our progress.

If you have in-kind donations, please contact John Andras at jandras@mackieresearch.com or newly appointed director of in-kind donations John Currie john.currie2@sympatico.ca.

The Rotary Club of Palgrave (and several other groups and individuals) have joined in a partnership project with DAREarts First Roots. DAREarts and the Stratford Festival have formed a team to travel to four northern communities where 30 youth from each community will engage in an intensive week of multi-arts workshops. Each community will share traditional stories involving a bear which will then be showcased.

In August 2017, a new play about a polar bear encountering change on the Canadian northern land will premiere at Stratford. The youths' creative works will be the frame of reference for the production called "The Breathing Hole".

Tickets are on sale through the Stratford Festival website. If you would like to partner or support in the $20,000 cost of this project, please contact DAREarts directly - info@darearts.com.

After a successful Northern Student pilot project in January 2016, the Rotary Club of Stratford is pleased to announce that a grade 8 student from Cape Dorset will be arriving in January 2017 for a semester of school and an opportunity to experience life and culture in southern Ontario. Cape Dorset was selected due to its loss of the secondary school by fire in 2015. The student will live with a host family. The school program is collaboration between the school board and the Rotary club. The cost is $8,000/year. By focusing on grade 7-9 students, the Innu students will be exposed to more educational opportunities and experiences outside their communities while recognizing and respecting their cultural mores. It is hoped the students will become leaders who will help change attitudes towards education in their communities. If other clubs are interested, further information can be provided by the RC of Stratford.

What is your club doing ? If your club is or has held an event or been involved in an event or project, please email Julie Dunaiskis (julie@eccgroup.ca) a brief summary so we can post on the HIP website and provide an update in upcoming newsletters.

Our Message from HIP Chair, Chris Snyder

Christmas is a time of giving and reflection. For Rotarians and many others, giving is an everyday thing. Reflecting, however, is more sporadic and sometimes never happens.

The HIP board has recently done some reflecting and we have concluded the past few years have been very successful in relation to our mandate of education and awareness. We have, though, concluded it is time to enhance the relationship of Rotarians and the Indigenous peoples. This can be played out many ways, however, in general it means more personal interaction with each other.

To make this happen, establishing a relationship with the Indigenous community close to you (reserve or Friendship Centre) will go a long way. If you have a community close to you, why not connect with them. We can provide the connection if you wish. Check out our website for the community close to you. Indigenous readers check out your local Rotary club. If you would like an introduction, we can help.

A start could be a simple get-acquainted meeting. This could be followed up by coming to a Rotary lunch or a Pow Wow.

Rotarians find out their needs and also ask them about their culture and customs and interests. Listen to their stories, find out interests you have in common.

Rotarians are not known to be of the retiring sort; however, you will likely need to take the initiative. There is much we can learn from each other.

If you have not done so already, why not make 2017 the year of our 150th anniversary. the year to connect so we will make UNDERSTANDING THE PAST, MOVING FORWARD TOGETHER a reality.

Happy Holidays!

Sincerely, Chris Snyder Chair, HIP snyder@eccgroup.ca 416-364-0181 Ext. 2501

The Water and Sanitation Rotarian Action Group (Wasrag) is pleased to consider partnerships with any corporate supporter. Due to the unique attributes of water sources and water provision, acceptance of corporate support does not imply an endorsement of any particular water technology. Rotarians, Rotary clubs, and Rotary partners must evaluate any technology to determine if it is the best solution for the conditions where the program will be implemented. Wasrag can provide guidance about where different technologies work best, but Rotarians and Rotary clubs must make the final decision about how to implement their programs.

The Water & Sanitation Rotarian Action Group is a group of Rotarians whose purpose is to support Rotary clubs to effectively plan, finance, implement, monitor and evaluate water, sanitation, and hygiene programs, where they are most needed in a collaborative, cost-effective, timely, and sustainable manner, true to the principles of Rotary International. Wasrag operates in accordance with Rotary International policy but is not an agency of, or controlled by, Rotary International.

Four Keys to Great Decision-Making

Great leadership is based on making sound decisions. It's simply part of the role. But it can also be one of the toughest things to maneuver. When you make a decision, you have to know how long to stay the course and when to reverse direction.

There are obviously simple decisions—the black-and-white variety—that don't require a great deal of judgment. Those are the decisions taught in business school. But in my experience, most of the answers aren't that easy. Decision-making has many shades of gray.

I compare effective decision-making to great baseball. In baseball if you get a hit one out of every three trips to the plate, you're in the Hall of Fame. In business, that doesn't get it done. You need to be right much more often. At the outset, you might not know whether the decision you made is the right one, so it's important to be honest with yourself every step of the way.

I've listed four concepts of decision-making that have helped me throughout my professional life.

Patience

After making a decision, you have to be patient and see that decision through. It could take anywhere from a matter of days to several years for results to provide a complete picture. That's where patience comes in. Many leaders tend to get so invested in their decisions that they refuse to question them; they perceive doubt as a sign of weakness or a lack of courage. Rather than face the facts, they tend to dig in and become, as some of us may say, a little bullheaded.

Honesty

Honesty allows you to objectively assess your decisions and when you should consider changing course. Look at the key indicators for your business: revenue growth, bottom-line growth, increased client satisfaction and overall company health. This kind of critical analysis will let you know if you need to pivot.

The classic business example of a smart course change occurred in 1985 when Coca-Cola launched "the new Coke" to contest a growing market preference for diet sodas. Within three months, the rebrand failed miserably and the original Coca-Cola was reintroduced. Reversing direction isn't a sign of failure, but rather it is evidence of a leader's commitment to keep the company's health a top priority.

Collaboration

Making good decisions also depends on having a group of advisers who you completely trust to tell you the truth. A lone wolf leader may have an overly idealistic view of the situation. Surround yourself with honest and objective voices to have a clear perspective.

Instinct

Good decisions are contingent on knowing your business inside and out, through a combination of analytical reasoning and gut instinct. Leadership and decision-making are a combination of these factors, and it's more of an art than a science. If a decision doesn't feel right in three months, chances are your instincts are alerting you to a disaster waiting to happen.

Leaders have a unique opportunity to influence the lives of their team members, but the responsibility can also keep you up at night, worrying about results and about peoples' lives. Decisions at this level are always big and always critical, but the process is pretty simple: be honest with yourself and be willing to accept when you are wrong. Focus on the goals and the mission of the organization. Know when to abandon the game plan and make a new one. Real leaders know when to put their pride aside for the good of everyone involved.

Take this new year of 2017 as an opportunity to decide to create a clear path for you personally, professionally and as a Rotarian.

REMINDER: ROTARY SWEAT EQUITY TRIP INFORMATION Haiti

From Chris Snyder, Rotary Club of Toronto

Hello Rotarians and Friends,

We now have dates in place for our trip to Haiti. Our scheduled date of departure is Tues March 28 2017 and leaving Port au Prince Sat April 8th 2017. For those who cannot take the time, there is the option to leave at different times. These dates could change.

Route

The route will be via Miami on American Airlines. It is an early morning flight and we should arrive about 12.30 pm in Port au Prince. From the airport, it is a short bus ride to our hotel which is located in a safe area in the outskirts of Port au Prince. It is a 15 minute walk to the school.

Our Work

In partnership with Emmanuel International and Oeuvre Baptiste de Bethesda, we will be working mainly at the Delmas School constructing 2 classrooms. This is a private school. Private schools in Haiti, as in other developing countries, are much different than in Canada. This school is for marginalized children and they exist as an alternative to the poor public schools. Our focus will be on building new classrooms but will also involve some teaching and considerable interaction with the children and teachers. Work will not be heavy and no one is asked to do more than they are capable of. Depending on time and people, we may also help to build a bridge linking the school with a church. The cost of the classrooms is about $17,000 US and the bridge about the same amount.

Delmas is a school which runs from Standard 1 – Standard 8. As we all know, education is the basis for poverty reduction in the developing world. It should be noted religion is very important in Haiti, however, as we know from previous partnerships with Emmanuel, religion is played out by the good works Emmanuel does in their community. Daniel Jovin and Richard McGowan from Emmanuel will be with us for part of the time and will add considerably to our trip. Daniel's parents oversee the project in Haiti.

Other Activities

Upon arrival, we will take time to get acquainted and start work on Wed. On the weekend, we will visit the rural areas and see the state of repairs from the earthquake and recent hurricane. We will also visit some of the other rebuilding sites.

It should be noted, we will be a distance from the area most affected by the hurricane. Cholera should not be an issue. One can protect oneself by drinking bottled water, eating only fruit and vegetables that have been peeled and taking proper medication such as Dukarol and staying out of swampy areas.

We will also connect with local Rotary clubs.

We plan on having local speakers who can help us learn more about Haiti. The quality and diversity will be in keeping with what we have done in previous trips.

In summary, we want people to get as much of the feel of Haiti as possible. We all know Haiti is the poorest country in the western hemisphere.

Accommodation and Contact Information

Our hotel will be the Luxcomfort in Port au Prince. We will have double rooms with showers and air conditioning. There is a swimming pool. Some meals will be at the hotel, however, many will be in restaurants nearby. If you wish a single room, this will cost an additional $200. However, do not expect the food and restaurants to be at the same level as in Cambodia.

Baggage and Costs

Each person is allowed 100 lbs in 2 bags. No bag can weigh more than 50 lbs. The cost of the trip will require a donation of $4,000.00. The above includes amounts for building supplies, cancellation and baggage insurance, meals, accommodation and transportation. It does not cover the separate weekend excursion, alcohol, out of country medical insurance, souvenirs and other personal expenses.

Cheques need to be received as follows:

Cheques in the form of a donation are tax-receiptable and are to be made payable to EMMANUEL INTERNATIONAL

- $400.00 deposit with application(non-refundable)
- $1,800.00 dated January 3rd
- $1,800.00 dated March 1st

Tax receipts will be issued after the trip.

Note: while we hope you will not have to cancel, if you do cancel for health reasons, you will receive a refund of the full amount less $400.00 plus an airline cancellation fee.

If there are extra expenses because of alternate travelling arrangements, this will be for your account.

All cheques are to be sent to Julie Dunaiskis c/o ECC Group, 100 Simcoe St, Suite 110, Toronto, ON M5H 3G2.

Please send in all cheques together, post-date accordingly and fill in the attached participant application form (using your full name as it appears on your passport) along with the waiver as soon as possible. EMMANUEL INTERNATIONAL will pay the airline and other expenses.

Note: We suggest you send in the form and money as soon as possible to guarantee a place on the trip. The $400.00 will hold your place. If you wish the tax receipt for 2016, please send in an additional amount. If there is an over-subscription, forms and money will be held. If there are cancellations, we will provide opportunities to go in order of receipt.

If you wish to make separate travel plans before or after, please review with Chris Snyder at (416) 364-0181 Ext. 2501, email snyder@eccgroup.ca or 905-990-1735. The cost of any changes are your expense. We will connect you with our travel agent if you wish. We are using Raptim, an organization used by Emmanuel that specializes in humanitarian travel.

Passports & Visas

You will need a passport that has an expiry date no less than 6 months after your scheduled departure from Haiti.

What to Bring

Your attitude is the most important thing to bring, however, once we have received your deposit, you will be sent a "what to bring" sheet as well as a wish list from several of the organizations.

Travelling Money

You will not need much money unless you wish to buy a number of souvenirs or travel separately afterwards. We will be visiting local markets. U.S. dollars are recommended. ATMs are available and credit cards may be used in Haiti in a few places but generally cash is best.

Participation

This is a trip in which everyone participates. Many activities will be group activities, however, it is recognized there is a need for individual space. It is not intended that anyone receives special treatment. We will be working alongside local people. The main focus will be to build, however, as indicated, we will provide opportunities at other jobs at the hospital, in the schools and other organizations.

The schedule is important. It will be necessary for everyone to be on time. It is not fair for one person to hold up the entire group. Meals, flights, tours and meetings need to operate on schedule. Please act with the entire group's welfare in mind.

It should, though, be recognized things in Haiti do not always go as planned. Being flexible is a must.

Fundraising

We have found that friends and others wish to make donations to help with the building of the school. We will provide details at a later date. However, we will need to raise approximately $20,000 over and above our own donations. We will also bring other supplies such as clothes, sports equipment and school supplies. Details will be provided. Often it is better to buy these locally.

First Aid/Medical

Report any medical problems to the team leader immediately.

Remember, in a hot or tropical country the climate demands that you drink plenty of water whether you think you are thirsty or not. This will be provided for you on the job site.

Check with your family doctor to determine your personal needs for special medical precautions, shots, prescriptions, etc. Local travel clinics will advise on the specific needs. The big precautions are for Hepatitis A and B, influenza, Measles. I have had mixed comments on Malaria.

Dukarol is also recommended for stomach problems including cholera and an antibiotic such as Cipro is often recommended. You should also keep in mind this is a physical trip.

Your health is your responsibility as is out of country health coverage.

You should exercise great caution with the food. We sometimes have people who get sick.

Safety is always important. Always being aware of your surroundings is a good mantra.

REMINDER: Club of the Month:

The "Club of the Month" is not a new concept to District 7070. In the past we have asked clubs to brag about them selves but we are a modest group.

In fact, it has been available to all Rotary Clubs in District 7070 all year. Where have you been for the last two years?

To encourage "Service Above Self" throughout the District, the District Governor and future Governors have decided to share stories about the clubs which exemplify our motto.

Do you think that your Rotary Club deserves to be named "Club of The Month"?

If so, please do some bragging and submit a one-page story about your Club (about 300 words) ,and add a few photos, and send it to District Governor Michael Bell. In your story, tell them a bit about the history of your club and some of your major accomplishments and how your club serves Rotary in your community and throughout the world. The esteemed panel of the 3 G's (District Governor Jim Louttit, DG Elect Neil Phillips) and DG Nominee Mary Lou Harrison) will make the decision, and it will then be entered on to the District 7070 website as "Club of The Month" and featured right here in the District Newsletter.

What Is The Rotary Leadership Institute (RLI)

RLI is a grassroots coalition of Rotary districts implementing a leadership development program for "potential" leaders of Rotary CLUBS. RLI believes that excellent CLUB leadership (all types of club leaders) is essential to the future of Rotary in a complex and fast changing world. Most Rotarians have not been exposed to the great scope of Rotary around the world and have not considered what leadership skills are necessary to move Rotary forward. RLI strongly believes that a good Rotary Club leader must know the evolution of Rotary, its current status and activities in the world and have a vision for what Rotary can be in the future.

RLI provides a three day non-consecutive basic course in both Rotary knowledge and leadership skills, especially for voluntary organizations. RLI follows an adult learning approach with facilitated discussion led by trained Rotary facilitators.

The cost is $70 per Rotarian per course. This cost covers course materials, coffee breaks and lunch. Usually the Rotary club covers the cost for their members to attend since the club will be the beneficiary of a more knowledgeable membership.

REMAINING Course for 2016-17:

Part I and Part II and Part III will be held on April 22, 2017 at a location to be announced in Toronto. Ontario (8:30 am to 4:00 pm)

If you have any questions, please contact Past District Governor Ted Morrison by email ted.sharron@rogers.com or by phone 905-623-3810. Please do not be disappointed. Register TODAY.

REMINDER: Club Visioning – Where is your club going to be in 5 Years?

Rotary Clubs, like any other organizations, need to have a plan for where they are heading. In order to assist Clubs to develop a vision, the District has a team of experienced Rotarians who can facilitate visioning sessions. Since we started the program, five or six years ago, close to 40 Clubs have held sessions. A few Clubs have held two or three sessions, up-dating their vision on a regular basis.

Why do we need vision?

Visioning facilitation helps a Rotary Club to develop its own vision and then sets out the steps necessary to achieve that vision. It is worth noting that the result is not a vision set out by the District or Rotary International. Instead, the result is a vision designed and endorsed by the Club's own members. This vision will help to ensure consensus, continuity and consistency in the Club leadership and programming, to set the stage for future progress.

Further contact

If you are interested in holding a Visioning facilitation in your Club, or just have questions in general, please contact PDG Lars Henriksson, lars@norditrade.com, tel. 416-489 8483.

This means that 6% of those visits did something... they called a business... they clicked on the map to find the business... or they went to the businesses website. In the industry, over 6% is very good. The more members we have participating and sharing the directory, the more exposure it will have and the better success it will have.
