

The Lance July, 2025

Introduction

My name is Cor Buys. I am your new editor of the Lanz for the coming year.

First of all, a big thank you to Leanne, Joy and Michael and anybody else who participated in producing the Lanz in the past year.

Going forward, please send me all material what you think is worthy of publishing. As I am residing in Port Alberni and likely not attend all meetings, I won't be able to take minutes at every meeting. On top of that I like to spend part of my winters in warmer climates.

I wish you all Happy Readings, "Cheers"
