July in Review

July 1st, we were already busy with an event. How’s that for rocking into the new Rotary year?! As usual, our Club has kept busy this month. We had an array of speakers and presentations – from Derik Rickwood talking about his Rotary Art passion projects – to our former club member, William Litchfield talking about his passion (raising awareness and money for BC Cancer). We also had Mic Daniels from Washington State visit us virtually to talk about his club’s project. Lastly, we had a good time getting to know our 23/24 Club President and welcomed some new members (thank you Sheila!) On the social end of things... a big thank you to Joy Cameron for hosting a beautiful garden party. It was much appreciated. Some also celebrated Bathtub Weekend with a visit to the Beer Gardens...stay out of trouble lads! Some members of our club participated in the Silly Boats and various other volunteer opportunities, such as the big Nanaimo Hospital Staff Appreciation event (thanks Troy) and some BBQ time at the Rugby Club. Never a dull moment! Well done all!
