

130 Director of Recognition

General

The Director of Recognition organizes, recruits, trains, and advises a roster of individuals whose job it is to inform members about various aspects of Rotary, and raise extra revenue for the Club by introducing some levity into Club Meetings by noting breaches of etiquette, testing knowledge of Rotary, Club, and community affairs, or such other means as may be devised.

Tasks

- provides guidance to meeting Directors of Recognition as appropriate
- maintains Director of Recognition portion of Service Roster on-line, or advise the Sergeant-at Arms