Collection*

Don't get me wrong - the Elks is a great organization, too!

John Hayto, please. Hey, John. Listen- a package arrived today for our Christmas party. Grana Padano. Am i signing for an Italian cheese or a musical instrument?

You can watch the Stanley Cup finals any time.
Kitty and I want to watch the minutes of the last Rotary Club meeting!

There's a Bike-A-Thon next week and I need to keep up with Franz Gehriger on Inspiration Hill!

That's the last time I let you go to a Rotary Club meeting on your own!

Fred West brought him in.
He's speaking on the benefits of unwrapped garbage.

There's been a coup. Brian Street is out and Gerry Glaser is President. He didn't want to wait 'til next year.

For the last time, Paul - I don't need to hear: 'It's a sunny Sunday!' It's 3 a.m. and the Bike-A-Thon isn't for another two weeks!

Next year we get an exterminator!

Anybody else want to say: 'The hell with it!' and hold pub night at the Sylvia a month early?

Give it a break!

And a spectacular finish to the Rotary Bike-A-Thon today as organizer Jack Zaleski stood at the end tape urging riders: 'ON! ON! ON!' and with most ending up in the Harrison Hotel pool.
