LAST WEEK’S MEETING

President Terry asked for note takers during the regular meetings. Marco made himself available and this was very much appreciated, according to a round of applause for volunteering to take notes.

Our Sgt. at Arms Jim introduced our guests. There was only one: Hugh Burke, who intends to rejoin our club.

Happy and Sad:

- Lynda reported that things were going well with the sports banquet.
- Mary was happy to be able to attend her mother's 85th birthday, Robert was happy that Melissa had provided him with a projector for today's program,
- Gordy was happy that Terry had encouraged Hugh Burke to return to the club. Gordy had tried for years, but as Hugh said it had to be the right person to ask him.

Lindsay presented the Rotary Moment. He spoke about how the Rotary magazine had blossomed over the course of years. There are now 33 different editions in 20 languages with a total circulation of 775,000.

Doris was a very effective mystery creature by making herself scarce prior to the meeting.

Matt was our final master and extracted some money from all of us by asking questions. Nobody had the right answer.

Mary asked about the sports banquet. Lynda mentioned that there are still some tables available, whereupon Hugh committed to sell tickets for a full table.

Then Robert Campbell and David Riddell gave a presentation on how to use our website. Very few do access it and even fewer are comfortable with it.

Robert walked us through the public site first and then both Robert and David showed how to log in and what can be done once one has arrived at that point. Even though these 2 gentlemen are very capable, there were still many blank looks among the audience. Robert then offered to tutor small groups on how to make good use of our website.

You also can give Peter Boekhorst a call and he will answer your questions as good as possible.

See the next page for some graphical presentation of our website.

Mark drew the lucky number of the 50-50 draw, but generated a sound of compassion when he did not draw the Queen of hearts.

Submitted by Marco Terwiel

50 / 50 draw - Jackpot at $448.00 + 1/2 of today's sales, 36 cards left, Jackpot on "Queen of Hearts" only!

"Changing of the Guard" @MeadowRidgeRotary
 BY ADMIN, ON JULY 6TH, 2011

The End of June always marks the passage of the gavel from past president to incoming president and this year the event was wonderfully arranged by incoming President Terry Becker. Pitt Meadows Golf Club put on a great spread and the weather was perfect for cocktails on the veranda and ceremonies and dinner in the [...].
