FIFTH ANNUAL ROTARY DUCK RACE

Prior to the big event, 35 volunteers – Rotarians as well as Friends of Rotary – tagged the ducks on Tuesday evening with their race number.

The 5th annual Rotary Duck Race went off without a hitch Sunday, July 19th at Maple Ridge Park.

With hundreds in attendance and with 33°C temperature, 5700 ducks sailed to the finish line.

Get ready,

Set,

Go!

And the winners are:

- Dawn Alexander of Pitt Meadows (#2179) won Maple Ridge Chrysler's Dodge Dart 1st Prize.

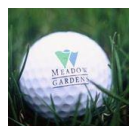

- Dawn Fritz won Mark's Work Wearhouse 2nd prize of $2,000 cash.

- Cris Cannell won Fuller Watson's 3rd prize furniture package worth $1,000.

- Bernice Pierce won Mark's 4th prize – apparel worth $1,000.

- Shana MacPherson won the 5th prize, which is two show tickets to River Rock Casino and dinner for four at Chances, Maple Ridge.

- Meadow Gardens' 6th prize of two rounds of golf for four valued at $870 was won by Carla Glasgow

- and Zachary Wachowicz won Haney Sewing & Sound's 7th prize of a 40" flat screen TV.

There was food and activities for all ages and excellent music for all.

A great big Thank You to the numerous volunteers, both Rotary and friends of Rotary.

To all you volunteers.... a line from Kahlil Gibran in The Prophet:
"It is when you give of yourself that you truly give."
