Libby's quote gives some sage advice:

The Anglican Church parish of St. George has raised $3,150 for the Starfish Backpack program.

The Barnett Fellowship raised $4,900 in a Car Boot sale.

There is a summer program called "After the Bell" that will run over the summer to cover these kids while not at school.

Happy Sads:

- David Rempel is looking forward to the Roca concert and his well drilling has come up with excellent results. He has lots of water now.
- Sharon had some great golf days and fellowship with Matt and Lynda in Princeton.
- Libby is thankful for the rescue of the boys in Thailand.
- Brian gushed about his wife Sharon who won all the prizes at a recent golf tournament despite intense competition from the other female competitors who decided to stay home.

Fines:

Mark Forster fined pretty much everyone for missing the cameo by Red Green in the last Four Way Flasher.

Mystery Greeter:

Dave Rempel caught a few in his web.

Presentation:

We had 4 firefighters today including the two recent academy graduates: (l) Darcy Pachal and (r) Dawson Lawless

Brent Hannah and Timo Yurrakko who were the Youth Academy trainers this year.

Sharon presented Darcy with a $1,000 bursary and Dawson will be receiving his soon. The young men described their experience with the program detailing community service, hands on and book learning as they pursue their dream of becoming firefighters.

Sharon won the 50/50. I'm sure that expensive picture frame she has been saving will be perfect for the 7 of clubs.
