LAST WEEK'S NOTES

Last week was a business meeting and saw some committee reports, Rick Carruthers submitted an excellent year-end overview of the accomplishments of the education committee and some helpful recommendations for the new committee. Jim Bradley reported that the bingoplex is most likely to implement a "pooling" system as recommended by the Gaming Commission, we should keep a close eye on the changes, otherwise our bingo-timeslot is attracting about the same amount of people every week. Ineke Boekhorst distributed a final report on our 1st Annual WineZest, net profit $6,628.00 with 243 tickets sold. Fantastic result, great job everyone. Bruno Tommasini reported on Rotary Foundation, only 2 members made a contribution! Please contact Bruno ASAP (sustaining members $100.= US or $135.=CD yearly and you will receive tax-receipt) Marco Terwiel received a very positive letter from our exchange student Brandon Wong informing us that he is happy to be able to communicate in the Japanese language

Ken Patterson installed 2 new members, a very warm welcome to: Sam Rostam and Davidd Lawley
