SIGNS SIGNS AND MORE SIGNS

An appreciated contribution from Glenna Gillan.

Glenna Gillan was Sheriff this evening and she had an interesting collection of questions?

How many passengers could an Air Canada stretched DC-8 hold?

I think the answer was 203 or so. Did this include crew? Ask Glenna.

What is the most famous painting gallery in the world?

The Louvre.

Where is tomb of Tutankhamun located?

The Valley of the Kings

Where were the Faberge Eggs made?

The Kremlin.

What did the last Faberge Egg sold, sell for?

The Third Imperial Easter Egg sold for 33 million dollars.

President's Meeting

Peter reported that discussions are underway at the Presidents Meeting to form a Rotaract Club.

The Rotary Now Landmark Club is busy looking for projects

Plans are also underway to extend the fundraising efforts for JoeAnna's House into the Kootenay area as that is where most of the guests are coming from.

District Governor's Official Visit

The District Governor Tracy McCall plans to visit The Kelowna Capri club on August 18th.

Rotary Day July 2026

Peter reported that early planning has begun, and things look good for next year.

HUMOUR

Still searching but internet is loaded with President Trump jokes and we try to avoid political thoughts.
