LAST WEEK'S MEETING

No recording of meeting.

SIGNS SIGNS EVERYWHERE THERE'S SIGNS

Sheriff John Mullock, who has a fondness for chocolates and Santa jubes, took a detailed look at the history of Toblerone and its symbols. Let's just say that there was money to be made in this topic

Greetings From Afar-

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
With love
Marta Jamborova

Environmental Service Project –

Due to the general absence of pollinators this topic has been paused until the new year.

Christmas Party – the RC Kelowna Capri Christmas Party is scheduled for December 22nd at the Kelowna Curling Club. We will be ordering off the menu and purchasing drinks from their bar.

Christmas Bottle Sales – sales have been underway at the Independent Grocery store in Capri Mall. Unfortunately, I've had a nasty cold this week (ever cough so hard your ribs hurt?) and have no idea how things went. this week. The booth was open for most

Salvation Army Kettles- Club members have begun staffing the Salvation Army kettle at Walmart on Saturday and will be doing so until just before Christmas.

THIS WEEK'S REGULAR MEETING

This week is the club Christmas party.

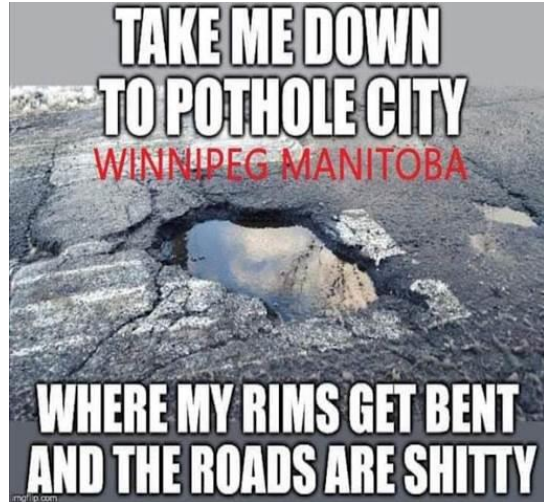

HUMOUR

DON'T EVER CHEW ON THE CHRISTMAS LIGHTS

GALLERY

Two tips for Christmas:

1. Forget the past.
You can't change it.
2. Forget the present.
I didn't get you one.

GUEST SPEAKER

There will be no speakers scheduled until we find a permanent home for our meetings.
