ROTARY PROJECTS IN A BOTTLE NEWS

John and Bob trying to handle the pace of selling at the KGH lobby, Dec 4th.

In all truth its been a busy couple of weeks with multiple selling events. Glenna told me that the gross sales have been good with the money tucked safely in the bank. Despite this I can still hear my account wife telling a client "Just because you have money in the bank, it doesn't mean you made much of a profit".

I received many photos from this event and just picked a few to show you. Check with the photographers if you are looking for a specific picture.

The next day the thank you note's arrived in Ron's email box...

On behalf of the residents and staff who attended last evening, a big THANK-YOU to you and all the Rotarians who took part, very special. It is certainly an event we look forward to each and every year and I know much planning takes place. The folks I asked were all smiles this morning. The meal you chose was great and suited all diets. We also appreciate the time the HandyDart drivers took taking care of our folks and transporting us all to the event.

Morning Ron,

I am just back from my week off. But did come by on Friday after the Rotary Party and the folks were talking about it and telling stories. One gal thought she'd won the lottery she got to have 3 glasses of wine. They said their guests that sat with them were amazing and fun. Great job!!!!
