Peace Action Group – To gain a better understanding of each other and get to know someone better, each week I will pose a question that you might want to ask members of your family, neighbours, business associates or friends. You will gain a greater understanding of them and they of you.

What books have shaped you the most?

Rotary Foundation - WORDS FROM A PAST ROTARY GLOBAL GRANT SCHOLAR

"During my time as a Rotary scholar, I learned to look at development differently. We often think of international aid in terms of poverty reduction, and we often see poverty reduction in terms of dollars spent and earned. The anthropology of development aims to analyze global aid in another way. We pay particular attention to how initiatives play out on the ground to determine just what local communities' needs are and how those needs might be met sustainably and, eventually, autonomously...Rotarians understand that to have the most impact, we need to learn from other cultures. As global grant scholars, that's what we aim to do – during our studies, and afterward." Levi Vonk, Global Grant Scholar and Fulbright fellow to Mexico

Folks, just remember as you read this, this person probably drives, votes and may have already reproduced.

GUEST SPEAKER

This week's speaker was Angela Stadnyk who is with the Salvation Army. Angela gave a quick overview of the operations of the Salvation Army in the Kelowna area and then went into this year's Christmas Kettle Program. She was very pleased to report that they had received $929,000 in kettle donations of which $927 came in the kettles we staffed at Walmart for one day.

Her overall presentation was interesting and is available in the link under Zoom Meeting.

No information on photographer but I do know as I get older, just how this wolf feels.

We've been having a soft winter but just so you don't forget, this is the Prairies in 2018.
