RAMBLING

Have I told you how much I like corn on the cob? Well it's time to do so and here are my favourites. All of them are sweet and delicious when covered in butter and salt.

Peaches and cream corn

Super Sweet Corn

Golden Jubilee Corn

Here in B.C. the Super Sweet and Peaches and Cream varieties tend to mature first in early July with the Jubilee maturing in August. These dates are approximations based on good growing weather as they need 70 to 85 days to mature.

Finally, most people like to cook their corn in boiling water, the traditional method. I like to cut the end ends off the cob but leave them in the husk (leaves), screw in plastic holders on each end of the cob and cook them in a microwave for 2 minutes per cob. The leaves being left on steams the corn. Once cooked you simply peel off the leaves but be careful because they are going to be hot. .

MEETING OF JULY 5, 2018

VISITING ROTARIANS – none

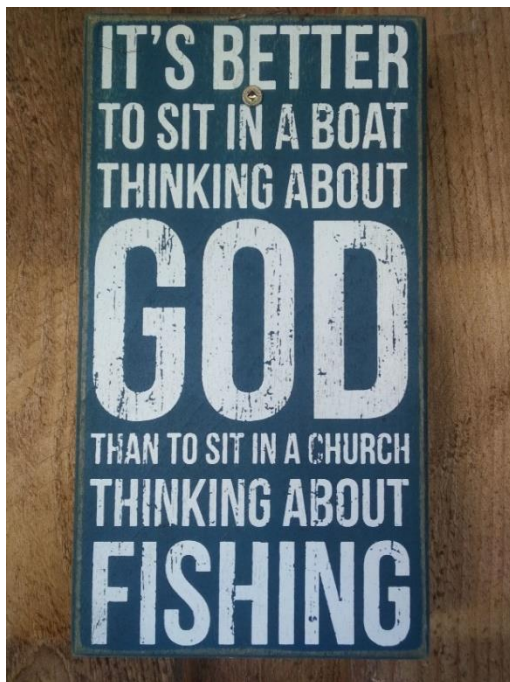

GUESTS –Noah Figueroa (guest speaker)

ATTENDANCE – 68%

Sheriff Ron returned to his favourite topic for tonight's fines – cartoons from his youth. Tonight questions came from The Jetson's. He showed a short clip from the show then began grilling us – what were the Jetson's first name? (George and Jane); what were the kid's names? (Judy and Elroy); what school did Elroy go to? (Little Dipper School); how about Judy's school? (Orbit High School) and where did George work? (Spacey Space Sprockets Inc.). Needless to say the sound of coins being tossed into the collection plate filled the room.

SIGNS SIGNS EVERYWHERE THERE'S SIGNS

If you lose one sense, your other senses are enhanced.

That's why people with no sense of humor have an increased sense of self-importance.

At the end of the day life should ask us "Are you sure you want to save the changes?"

GUEST SPEAKER

This evening's guest speaker was Noah Figueroa who was a Rotary Exchange student to Spain in 2016.

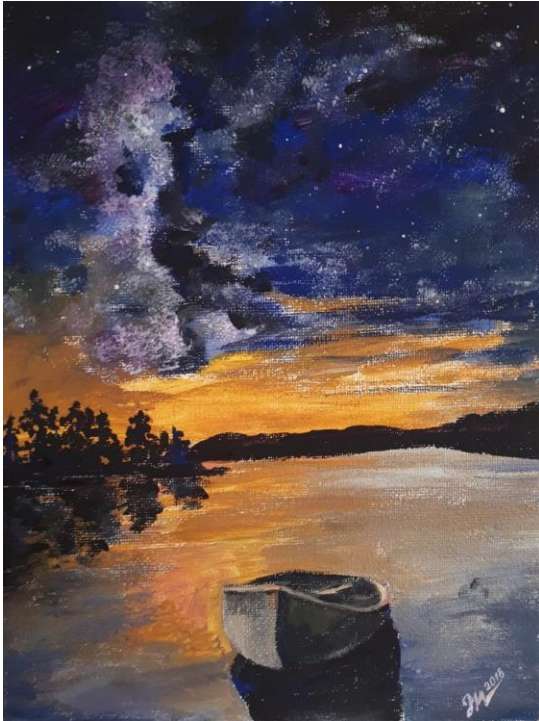

Noah talked about his trip and the places he stayed in Spain including Barcelona, and other smaller towns. He also talked about some of his out-of-school activities such as walking the pilgrimage trail known as the El Camino de Santiago.

It was a very interesting presentation with a personal touch. Noah will be attending the UBCO this fall to study Political Science.
