ROTARY PROJECTS IN A BOTTLE NEWS

June 5th update

We decided to use Canada day theme for our next trip to KGH June 19th. It will be decked out with table cloth with our flags on it, we have six decorated Canada Day bottles one being this picture. We are trying to keep the themes going it seems to work and people love the idea when they come by.

We hope to get started making stain glass bottles. Brenda and I are going to experiment first with the pens I bought that was suggested we use on U tube. You draw the black lines first (this supposed be the lead between the colors) bake it for 20 mins in a low heated oven and then put the colours in between the black lines and bake again for 20 mins. Viola supposed to be a finished stain glass bottle. Film at 11 after I get back from Newfoundland.

I will be away from this Sunday June 09 to 16th we be on the lookout for unusual bottles for our campaign. Still need volunteers for shifts on the 19th. Call me when I get back. June 17th, 18th will work or email me glenna@tristartravelandcruise.com

The memory lives on! 6th June 2019 marks the start of the 75th anniversary of the D-Day Landings and the Battle of Normandy.

VISITING ROTARIANS – Johann Berger (RC Munich)

Sheriff Brian obviously thought we were weak on the birth of Canada and proceeded to grill us on that topic. When was Canada born? (1867); who were the first provinces in Canada? (Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. PEI did not join until 1873); what was the last province to join Canada? (Newfoundland in 1949) and what was the second Prime Minister of Canada? (Alexander Mackenzie). As expected he also managed to collect all our current loonies.

The worst thing about elections is the huge discrepancy between what we're promised and what we actually get.

This is called
ELECTILE
DYSFUNCTION

Difficult read due to the colours used. It says
"The worst thing about elections is the huge discrepancy between what we're promised and what we actually get.

This is called ELECTILE DYSFUNCTION."
