RAMBLING

Brian is off on another motorcycle trip with a mutual friend, Ken. A few pictures have been sent back to me.

Saturday night cruising in downtown Yakima

A day later in Randle they discovered “baby” cinnamon buns much to my envy.

Meanwhile...

Claudio provided a couple of pictures to Rusty (which he shared with me) from his meeting with the Rotary Club of Juba (South Sudan) where he was invited to attend and speak at the installation programme for the new 2018–2019 President, Mr. Emmanuel Ecodu. The RC Juba meets every Tuesday at 5 pm and Claudio plans to meet with them again when he returns to Juba at the end of this month.

MEETING OF SEPTEMBER 6, 2018

VISITING ROTARIANS – Johann Berger

GUESTS –none.

ATTENDANCE – 100% (Lockie's makeups provided the magic)

Sheriff Carola continues on her quest to teach us the high points of each month. Tonight it was the month of September that was the focus of her probing questions. Some were simple questions such as what was the month's flower? (the Aster – symbol of wisdom and valour) and what was the month named after? (a number seven, September is the seventh month in the Roman calendar). Some were harder questions like what kind of food should you eat on September 13th? (Peanuts and fortune cookies as it's their national day) or what animal is recognized on September 22nd? (the elephant). I was tempted to argue that I'd recognize an elephant on any day in September but decided to surrender to the inevitable and gave her all my fine money.
