

2021-2022 Club Leadership Team Elected During Annual Meeting

Story by Ed Kolybaba on November 28, 2020

The Rotarians of the Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise congratulate the club Rotarians who were elected for the executive and officers for the 2021-22 Rotary Year. The election took place during the club's Annual Meeting held on November 27th, 2020.

The executive for 2021-22 will include Marjolein Lloyd as President (this year's President-Elect), Randall Bamford who will move from Vice-President to President Elect, Moya Webb as Vice-President, Norm LeCavalier in the Past President position, Bob Fortier, returning for his fourth year of a four year term, and Carolyn Monz who will take over the Secretary position from George Pinches.

Three directors were also elected to join the executive to provide additional leadership for the club during the 2021-22 Rotary Year. Allison Kirkwood will serve as director for the newly named Youth and Environmental Committee; Melanie Hall-Szyszkiewicz will take on responsibilities related to the leadership of the Community Service Committee; and Susan McIntyre will provide leadership for the Club Service Committee. The three Rotarians will be serving the first year in a two year term position.
