

Progress with the Uganda Mityana Farm Project

Posted by Ed Kolybaba on Apr 25, 2015

Pat McAllister, Kelowna Sunrise's Vice-President and Chair of the Ways and Means Committee, recently received a Report on the progress being achieved at the Mityana Farm Project in Uganda. McAllister, also serving as the Primary Contact for the project, at a meeting of the club on April 17th shared that the report indicated that to date the walk behind tractor and water tank had been purchased. As well, the stand for the water tank had been constructed and was now ready to be erected with the water tank placed on top.

The report was prepared by Echel Andrew, the ISEE Project Coordinator for Uganda following a visit to the Farm and Orphanage where he observed the progress and met with Reverend Allan Boaris, the new mission supervisor with the Missionary of the Poor organization in Kampala, Uganda.

The Mityana Farm Project was approved at the beginning of the 2014-15 Rotary Year and is a joint project of the Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise and the Rotary Club of Kampala Sunrise (Uganda) in partnership with the Missionary of the Poor in Kampala, Uganda. The Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise has contributed US$11,062, District 5060 has matched these funds with another US$11,062, and the Rotary Club of Kampala Sunrise has provided an additional US$3000 to the project.

A copy of the report is found within the Service Areas and Committee's Site Page. After entering this site, go to the Related Page Foundation/International Service and then open "The Humanitarian Projects of the Club" for the report.
