The Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise was well represented at the 2014 District 5060 Conference held in Yakima, WA from May 01-04, 2014, with 27 Rotarians and spouse in attendance. Paul and Colleen Mulvihill, Bruce and Donna Falkins, Barb Penner, Craig Garries and Dianne, Linda Frandsen, Helmut and Ellen Hubert, Martha and Maro Kennedy, Pete

Mackenzie, Chico and Linda Newell, Tom and Wendy Paterson, Bill and Joanne Reynolds, Jerry, Anke and Jennica Sedmak, Vic and Sangeeta Spolia, Don and Lucy Turri, and RYE student Gabriela Prada Santos joined more than 400 other Rotarians and guests from the district at the annual event hosted by District Governor Darrell Blue and the three Yakima Rotary clubs.

This year's conference, focused on the theme "The Magic of Rotary," started off with a fun filled Fiesta on Thursday evening. Locally scheduled activities, followed by the very popular home hosting evening, provided registrants with a full day of activity and fellowship on Friday. Following the Opening Ceremonies on Saturday, the usual Plenary Sessions and Breakout Sessions kept the Rotarians and guests busy throughout the day. The day culminated with the DG's Reception, which included a well received and motivating presentation by Doug Vincent, RI President Ron Burton's Representative. Sunday's activities culminated the conference at 11:00 am.

The program on Sunday provided an opportunity for In-coming District Governor Bruce Falkins and Donna, along with 2015 Conference Chair Paul Mulvihill and members of the 2015 Conference Planning Committee, to invite those in attendance to take part in the 2015 Conference to be held in Kelowna on June 18-21, 2015.
