

Something to Celebrate: TRF Surpasses Goal in Raising Funds for Humanitarian Service

Story by Ed Kolybaba on Apr 12, 2019

The 2017-18 Annual Report, recently published, stated that during the Rotary Year of 1917-18, The Rotary Foundation met its ambitious goal of raising US$ 360 million for the Foundation to fund diverse, sustainable service projects all over the world. The Foundation not only met that goal, but surpassed it. Furthermore, the Foundation made great strides in its effort to build the Foundation’s Endowment to US$ 2.025 billion by 2025.

According to the Annual Report, the Foundation used the generous donations of Rotarians around the world continue to support the Foundation’s priorities throughout the 2017-18 Rotary Year. The following chart provides a general overview of the scope and financial support provided for the Foundation’s program.
