

An Invitation to a "Groovy Gala"

Ed Kolybaba

Feb 07, 2013

If you consider yourself a somewhat groovy type of person, you won't want to miss attending the Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise's "Groovy Gala" event on Saturday, March 23rd. The fundraising event will be held at the Rutland Centennial Hall.

Through this event, the club raises funds and provides volunteer time to support community and international projects and events, and in doing so brings to life Rotary's motto, "Service Above Self."

Money will be raised during the event through a LIVE AUCTION and a SILENT AUCTION. New this year is a fantastic ONLINE AUCTION which will be held prior to the event.

At this time, club members are in the process of collecting merchandise, gift certificates and/or gift cards for the event from the club's generous community supporters. The success of the fundraiser depends highly on the support of the community. Donors benefit from exposure of their company's name at the event and through the media. As a means to gain this exposure, the club includes the donor's name on the event program, in the Capital News thank you ad and on the Sunrise Rotary website. The merchandise and/or certificates you give will be on display through the event. Donors are invited to attend the event and in doing so, they will have the opportunity to meet prospective customers and they may even find a few bargains to bid on.

The public and the club's supporters are invited to attend the Groovy evening of great food, entertainment, dancing and of course, taking part in the fun filled auction where bargains will be had for a top bid.