

Club Inducts Rena Warren as the Club's first 2012-13 New Member

Ed Kolybaba

Oct 18, 2012

Rena Warren, an art educator who has worked with the Kelowna Art Gallery, OPUS and the Central Okanagan School District, was inducted into the membership of the Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise on October 12, 2012. Marion Henselwood, the club's Membership Director conducted an official induction ceremony and then with all of the members of the club, welcomed Rena to the club. Jerry Sedmak, well known for his ability to encourage members of the community to seek out Rotary membership, and also the Rotarian who first introduced Rena to the merits of joining the club, was present during the official induction.

Rena is an avid art supporter, art educator and artist. She specializes in in large scale oil portraiture. She attained her Fine Arts degree from Okanagan College.