

Club Continues to Serve as the Key Sponsor for Shoe Bank Canada

Story by Ed Kolybaba on Nov 25, 2017

The Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise continues to be a key sponsor of Shoe Bank Canada which was founded in 2015. As a key sponsor, the club has donated more than $10,000 each year to the not-for-profit organization to enable it to maintain a warehouse in Kelowna, which also serves as the organization's distribution centre.

On November 23rd, Shoe Bank Canada founder Jim Belshaw, was presented with a cheque at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise. Sonja Barker of the Interior Savings Credit Union was in attendance at the meeting for the presentation.

L to R: President Andy Griffin, Jim Belshaw, Sonja Barker, Heidi Miller and Brian Wrightson

For the past two years, funds generated from the club's Kelowna Ribfest have been donated to Shoe Bank Canada to enable the Rotary club to maintain its yearly commitment of $10,000.. As a key sponsor of the Kelowna Ribfest, the Interior Savings Credit Union has requested that the Rotary club allocate $10,000 from the Ribfest profits each year.