

Clare Ramdin & Rotary Club of Cranbrook Sunrise
Undergraduate Scholarship
Four - $1500 Scholarships to be Awarded (or more)

Clare Ramdin:

It is very important to recognize the life of Clare Ramdin and how she quietly impacted so many people's lives. Born and raised in Scotland, Clare moved to the Kootenays in the mid 60 's and had a fulfilling career as an Purchaser for Crestbrook Forest Industries. She volunteered for many charities in Cranbrook. This volunteerism even extended to Mexico. In Mexico, as she enjoyed the warm sun, she worked with underprivileged youth. Clare's desire to help others is the cornerstone of this scholarship.

Eligibility

To be eligible students must be:

- Cranbrook students - normally graduates of Mount Baker Secondary, but students who completed home schooling while residents of Cranbrook, or who completed Ministry of Education requirements at a private school in Cranbrook will receive equal consideration.
- Entering 3rd, 4th or 5th year of undergraduate studies at a recognized post-secondary institution such as universities, college or trade schools.
- At least one award will be designated for Arts and/ or Performing Arts students.

Criteria

In selecting the successful candidate, the Clare Ramdin Scholarship Committee of the Rotary Club of Cranbrook Sunrise will give equal consideration to the following:

- Academic merit
- Financial need
- Community service and volunteer work
- At least one award will be designated for an Arts and/ or Performing Arts student.
