Partnership Update

We are thrilled to announce that the Rotary Employment Partnership has officially developed over 820 jobs for individuals with intellectual disabilities across Alberta. Vocation has always been at the heart of Rotary, and Rotarians bridging connections between the business community and Rotary Employment Coordinators is at the heart of the partnership. Thank you for supporting Albertans with intellectual disabilities in finding incredible jobs across the province.

New Jobs Developed

KPMG - Calgary

In February, Jade joined KPMG Canada's office in Calgary as the newest addition to their Office Services team. Tasked primarily as a mail room clerk, Jade's role involves efficiently managing mail distribution across all 9 office floors. Additionally, he plays a pivotal role in maintaining the office's cleanliness and organization, especially during the peak tax season. His dedication and support contribute significantly to the team's effectiveness, reflecting KPMG's commitment to excellence in professional services.

Lloydminster Public Library

Lloydminster Public Library recently hired Caleb as a part time Circulation Assistant through the Rotary Employment Partnership, thanks to a connection established at the Lloydminster Public Library. Caleb's role includes shelving and sorting books by categories. Some include new arrivals, Juniors, authors, large print and then by numeric, alphabetical, or both. Caleb's Manager and co-workers say he is quite diligent at work, and is an asset to the team with ease.

Fit4Less - Edmonton

Fit4Less Londonderry recently became an inclusive employer in Edmonton. Edmund was hired on as a host through the Rotary Employment Partnership. His duties include facilitating customer questions, operating the tanning, massage and hydro beds, light cleaning and general set up of the gym. Edmund previously completed his studies through NAIT's Personal Training Program with support from Inclusion Alberta's Post-Secondary Education initiative and was excited to work in a gym setting where he can put his knowledge to practical use. Edmund has fit in seamlessly with the team at Fit4Less, and his skills and talents have already been seen as a huge asset to the team. Thank you to the team at Fit4Less for your strong dedication to inclusion and partnering with the Rotary Employment Partnership!

Job Seeker Profile - Red Deer

Sam is an outgoing and friendly young man. He completed his studies at Red Deer Polytechnic, with a focus in Kinesiology. Sam enjoys learning new skills and being around people. Sam's past experience includes a position at G.W. Harris, entering data and statistics for the Kings and Queens sports teams, working at the front desk and equipment room. He also has experience as an office assistant. Sam is a dedicated and enthusiastic employee who is currently looking for a part time position.

Upcoming Events

We are looking forward to seeing everyone at the Rotary District 5360 Conference in Drumheller on May 4th and 5th, and at the Rotary 5370 District Conference in Edmonton on May 3rd and 4th. Rotary Employment Partnership Coordinators from across the province will be in attendance, and hosting a booth in the House of Friendship. Stop by and say hi!

We are also excited to share that the 4th Annual Peter Lee Golf Tournament will be happening on June 26th at the Links in Spruce Grove. Reach out to Rotarian of the St. Albert Rotary Club and chair of the Edmonton Rotary Employment Partnership Steering Committee, Andre Charrois (andre.charrois@nfp.ca), to register or sponsor a hole.
